Mr. Lawrence J. Murphy

There is one face among the many new ones at Pittsfield High School this year that especially stands out. It is, of course, that of Lawrence J. Murphy, our new principal. He has come forward actively for his primary concern, the students of Pittsfield High, in many ways which makes him an important part of our best high school year.

The task he has undertaken at Pittsfield High would be a difficult one without the extra burden of double sessions, but as he has shown so well this year, Mr. Murphy is a man who is extremely capable of this duty. As the outgoing Senior Class, we dedicate this yearbook to him as a heartfelt thanks for the year that he has given us and a wish that he will have continued success in his future at Pittsfield High School.

An enthusiastic P.H.S. sports fan, Mr. Murphy is obviously pleased with the action at a football game.

With the aid of his secretary, Mr. Murphy prepares to tackle some paperwork.

Mr. Murphy always finds time to answer any questions that may come up.

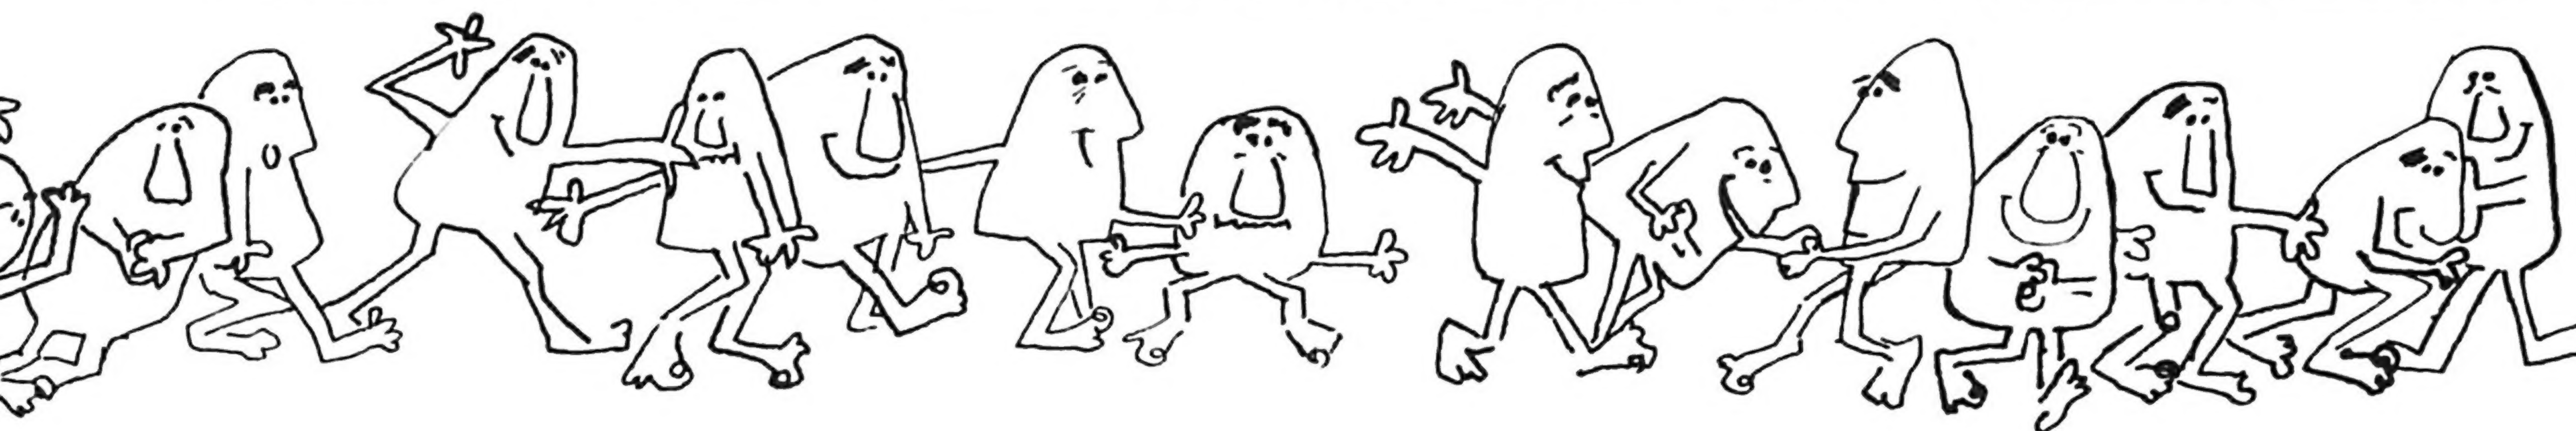

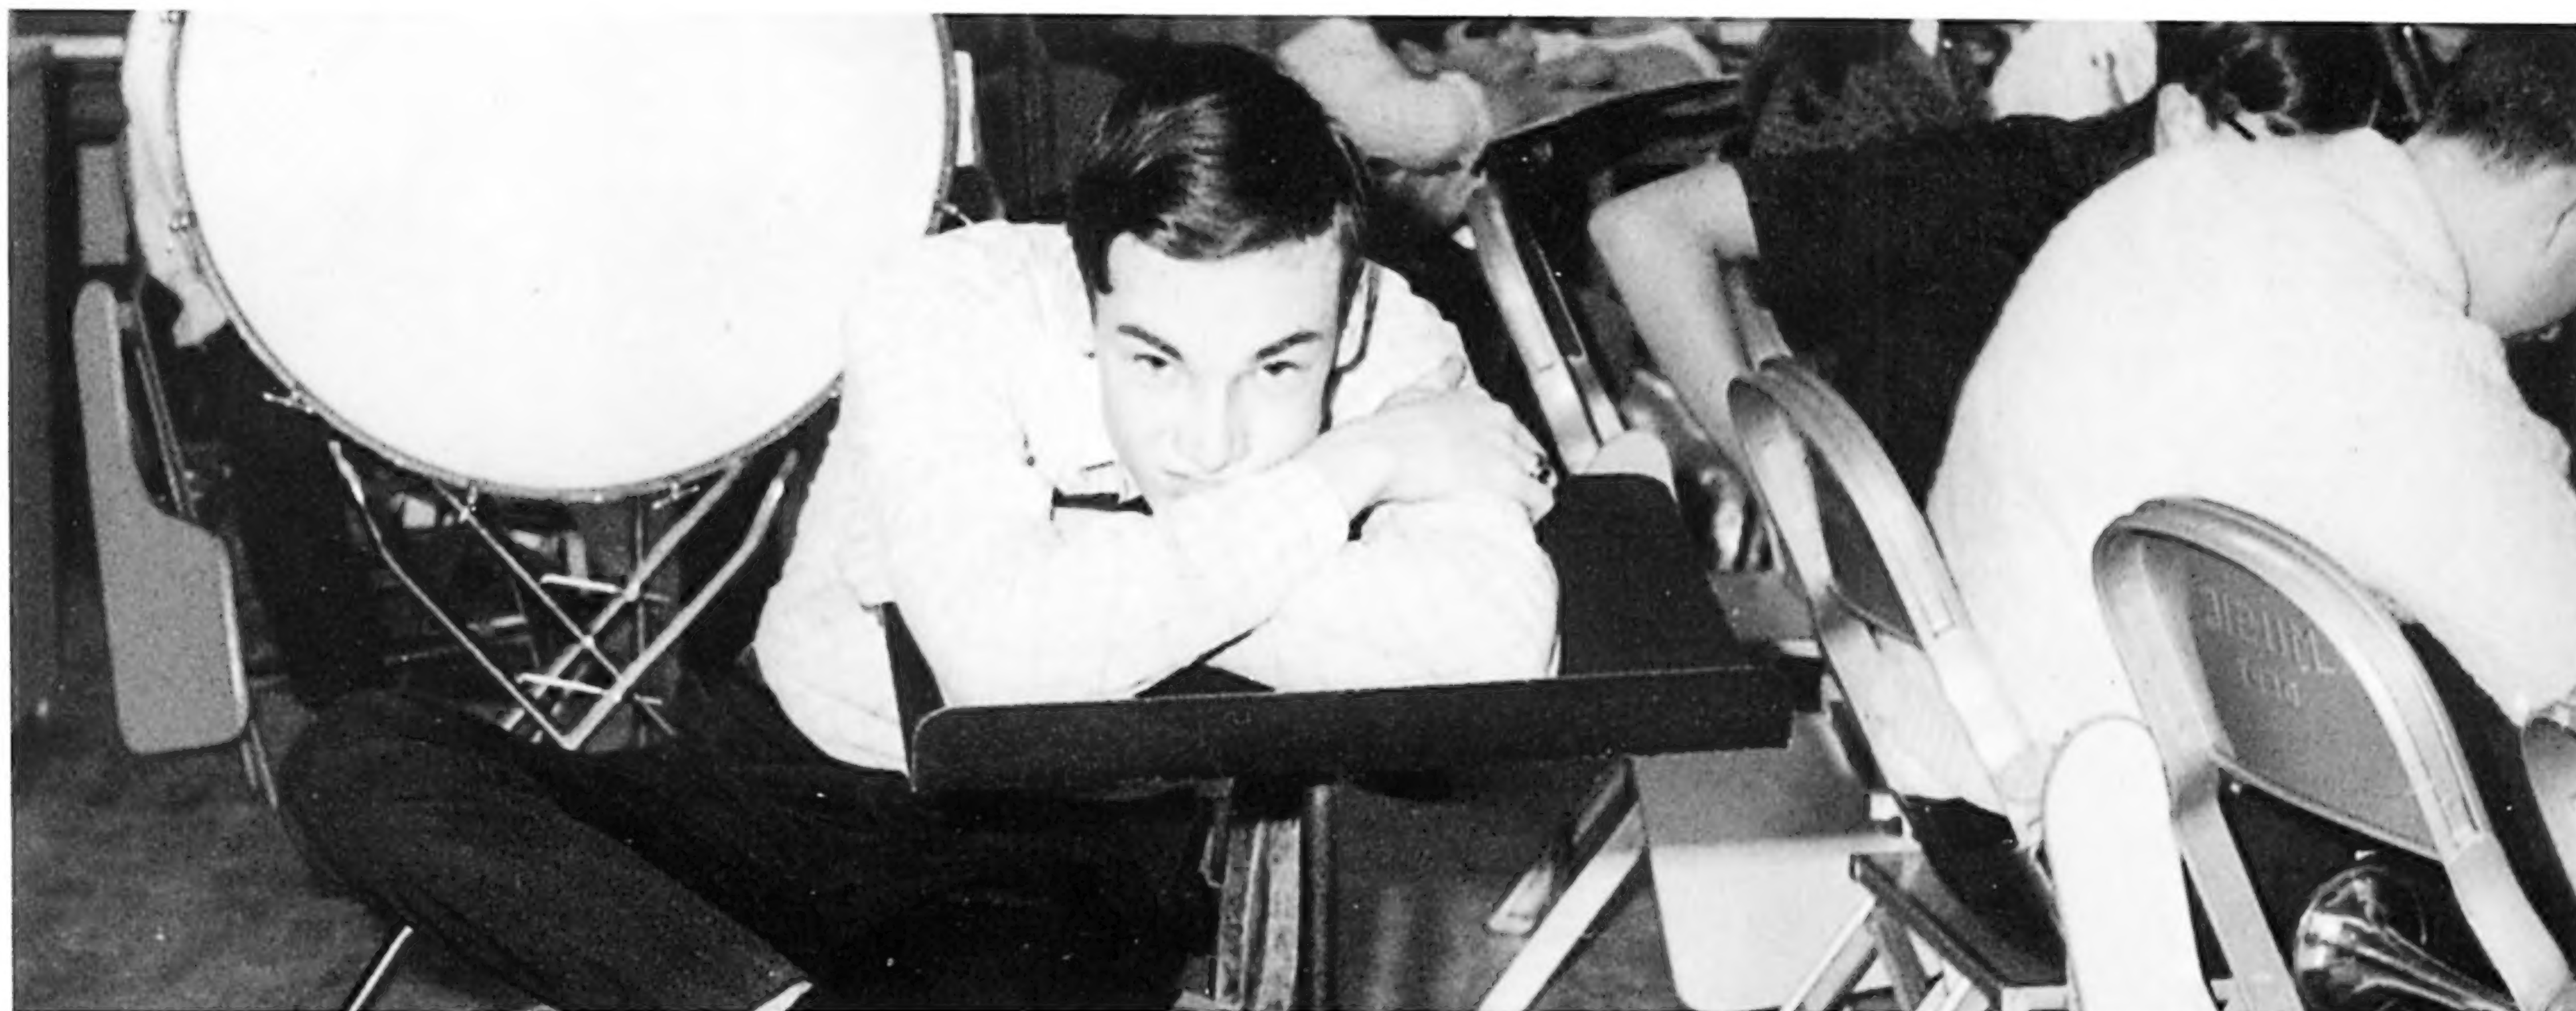

It's a mad, mad,

mad, mad world

There's a drab, dull monotony out in the world somewhere—but we can't claim it. The world of P.H.S. is a mad, mad, mad, mad one. We rush from class to class in record-breaking three-minute time. We snatch sleep and food whenever a spare minute lingers—we need the lift to carry us through. When one class day ends at 12:31, another begins. We stumble under piles of books, but our spirits somehow remain high. Perhaps someday we will be part of a dull routine—but for now our lives must adjust to the madness of P.H.S.'s mad, mad, mad, mad world.

It does one's heart good to create confusion for a change!

Occasionally the mad rush takes its toll.

A sudden lapse of school spirit?

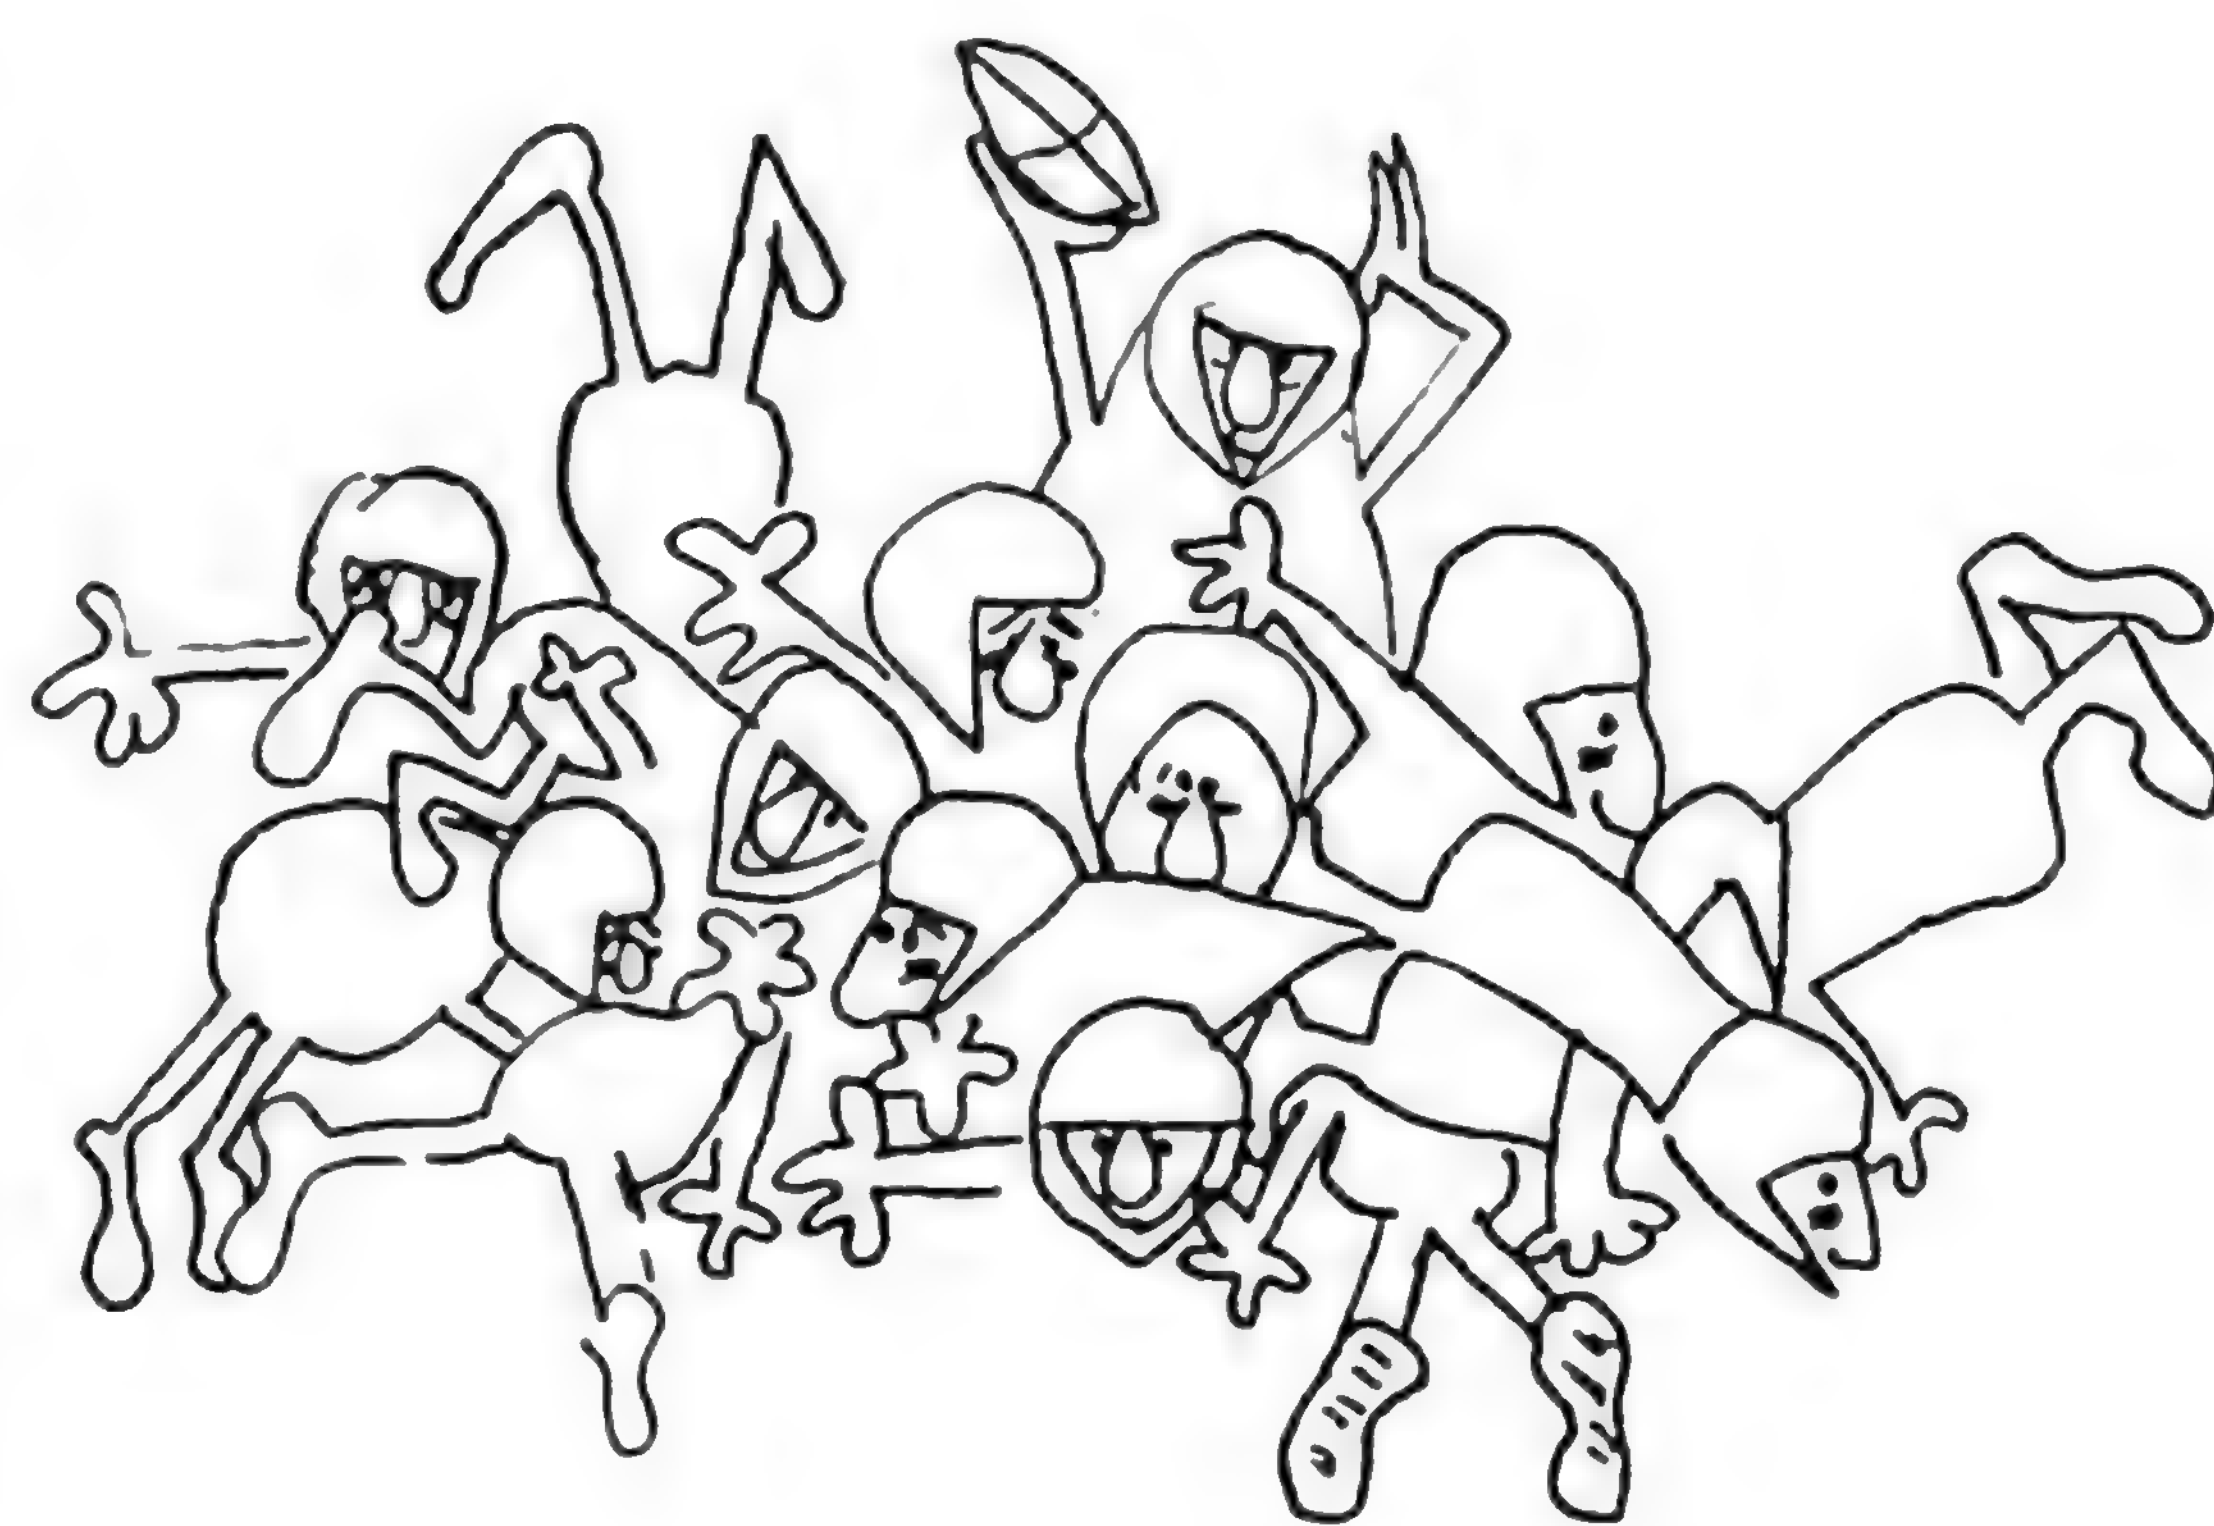

Fran Taginski stands out as he leads the P.H.S. male "chorus". . . .

. . . but then, there's always one in the crowd.

Biting back with "flower power."

Able administrators keep up

Double sessions has created a great deal of confusion at Pittsfield High School with many new problems increasing the responsibility of administration. The use of computers to process our schedules and report cards is just one of the ways in which they coped with the many problems. This staff has successfully met the hectic pace each day, keeping the school running smoothly and efficiently from 7:30 A.M. to 6:00 P.M.

For the Dean of Senior and Junior Girls, Miss Rosemary Cummings, tasks begin early in the morning.

Mr. Theodore Herberg, Head of Research and Curriculum.

Mr. Frank Coughlin, Vice-Principal of Technical, and Mr. Edward McKenna, Vice-Principal, spent many hours writing and revising the schedules of students who became "computer casualties" in September.

Afternoon Faculty

Seated: Miss Dolores Zieminski, Mrs. Virginia Haskins, Miss Patricia Lewis, Miss Anne Horrigan, Mrs. Joan Hobart. Standing: Mr. Peter Krause, Mr. Edward DiNicola, Mr. Edwin Stevens, Mr. Louis Roberts.

The English Department covers all facets of the English curriculum, from courses in basic grammar to detailed studies of the works of Shakespeare. There is also a special course being taught in the development of the novel and the short story as well as the college level Advanced Placement English course. Our English teachers have patiently put up with our fumbling efforts for three years and we thank them for it.

Librarians

Mrs. Rita Nesbit and Miss Elizabeth Currier.

Our library is the ideal place for studying.

Attention statesmen of tomorrow

A greater understanding of the past and an insight into the future is the hopeful accomplishment of the History Department. Through them we learn the reasons for such events as depressions and wars, especially those of our own country in the required U. S. History course, in hopes that we will be able to solve some of these problems for our generation.

The History Department has worked to broaden our interest in history and government by sponsoring such events as the Voice of Democracy contest, and the extremely educational trips to the United Nations for Seniors. They have successfully linked the past to the present to give us a clearer view of the future.

History Staff

Seated: Mrs. Linda Gangloff, Mrs. Barbara Pligavko, and Mrs. Nancy Jones.
Standing: Mr. Nelson Scherer, Mr. John Sapp, and Mr. Walter Biron.

History Staff

Standing: Messrs. Richard Slater, William Testoni, James Meaney, William Coan, Frank Moynihan, George Callaghan, Joseph Gleason, George Pellerin, and William Ryan. Seated: Mr. Robert Sage, Miss Dorothy Margolin, Miss Florence Coffey, Miss May Thayer, and Mr. Philip Pomerantz.

And here, barely noticeable, we find Pittsfield.

The wide world of history seems to interest Dick Kennedy and Ann Mangold.

Language Staff

Mr. Charles Gilson, Miss Josephine Scelsi, Mr. Robert Eberwein, Miss Dorothy Rhoades, Mr. Glenn Lizotte.

Languages through the Audio-Lingual Method

The Audio-Lingual Method of teaching French, German, and Spanish has greatly helped our understanding of foreign languages. Grammar and vocabulary are taught in the classroom while the ability to speak correctly is learned in the language laboratory—provided that the correct buttons are turned.

Presently, Latin is the only language still exclusively consigned to the classroom. Unless it is revived as a spoken language, this is where it must remain.

"Once upon a time. . ."

Miss Marjorie Guerin, Mr. Frank Moxon, Mr. Dennis Gilbert, Mr. John P. Leahy, (Department Head) Mr. Edward Blagdon, Miss Patricia Fleming, Mr. Frank Blowe, and Mr. Edward Daley.

Bob Kerwood and Sue Termohlen can't help being interested in this physics experiment.

science labs

The Science Department, aided by the installation of modern laboratories, has provided for the students of Pittsfield High School a better opportunity to increase their knowledge and stimulate their interest in science. It offers a broad selection of courses ranging from General Science to Advanced Placement work in Physics, Biology, and Chemistry. The well-equipped laboratories allow students in the science courses to experiment and discover for themselves the many wonders of our modern scientific world.

Bill Levy and Tom Barry are very absorbed in physics.

Chemistry never used to be like this, Mr. Blowe.

Frank McCarthy, Alfred Duda, Bob Rosenbaum, Karen Lahey, Joe Lyons, Dave Lubin, Mr. Murray, and Maureen Fontaine seem to have started the Pittsfield High School Zoo.

Mathematics Department

Seated: Mrs. Amy West, Mrs. Carol Chanen, Miss Gladys Archey, Miss Elizabeth Synan, Miss Marion Clark, and Mrs. Florence Henderson. Standing: Mr. Leonard Scott, Mr. Justin

Davis, Mr. Gregory DeBlois, Mr. William Broderick, (Department Head) Mr. Raymond Drainville, Mr. Gilbert French, and Mr. Robert Taylor.

"What station did you say it was on?"

It's a long problem!

Oh, it can't be all that bad, Mr. Landy! Smile!

Math and Tech Departments

Prepare Us For Tomorrow

We are being prepared to live and work in the ever-advancing world of today by our Mathematics and Technical Departments. Through the development of modern math, College Preparatory students can now gain a more thorough understanding of the theories and processes of algebra, geometry, trigonometry, and calculus. The technical student also acquires the solid foundation of math which is so essential to his detailed work in chemistry, physics, mechanics, electricity, and higher mathematics.

The Math and Tech Programs are a great aid in preparing us for our modern society. The long problems we are asked to solve may seem impossible, but a clear comprehension of their complexity is certainly worth the time and effort.

You're on the air!

Technical Faculty

Messrs. Daniel Minneci, Stanley Piatrowski, Rudolph Sarna, and Emilio Landy.

The advantages of sound vocational training

A very important part of the curriculum at Pittsfield High School is the training students are offered in fields including auto body and auto mechanics, mill carpentry shop, drafting, machine shop, welding, sheet metal work, printing, household arts, and cooperative distributive education. In senior year, these students have the opportunity to work at various local businesses and industries on the Co-op Program. The excellent training received at Pittsfield High School, and the work experience already acquired at graduation provides them with good qualifications for many excellent jobs.

Vocational Faculty

Standing: Messrs. Edgar Kettles, Hunter Robertson, Francis Belisle, Donald Clark, Edward Massery, William Harrington, James Ferris. Seated: Messrs. Myles Burke, Michael Morrison, Reginald Thompson, Francis Bresnehan, Richard O'Donnell, James Driscoll.

The vocational boys are working hard at their drafting boards.

Here you see all the latest fashions in welding. Mod, aren't they?

Miss Margaret Manvel and Miss Marion Willis (Department Head) compare notes.

Sharon Cassidy works diligently in her sewing class.

Marlene Coppolino, Donna Brewster, Carol Gagliardi, Miss Margaret Manvel and Sandy Graham seem to have white thumbs!

Miss Anne Nugent is skillfully setting up a display for the Retail Sales Department.

Introducing our Commercial

Marilyn Kubica, Marcia Flynn, Pat Turner, and Senta Lennon look on as Pat Scelsi uses a Data Processing machine.

Talk about rhythm and speed! Well, the students in the Commercial Department have all of that. Their nimble fingers on the typewriters and their speedy pencils transcribing the hieroglyphics of shorthand are only two of the many talents they possess.

As seniors, these students are offered a course in Data Processing. This gives them an invaluable opportunity to become familiar with the new equipment that has automated the business world and is constantly increasing in potential and use in new fields.

The Commercial Department is designed to prepare graduates for general clerical positions, civil service examinations, and for positions as stenographers or bookkeepers through the excellent training provided by their teachers.

Mrs. Thomas' class looks on as she explains Data Processing.

Mr. Voci's transcription class works diligently at their typewriters.

Mr. Charles Murphy, Director of Guidance for the Pittsfield public schools.

Our thanks to the Guidance Department

Though we seldom realize it, Guidance is one of the most important departments at Pittsfield High School today. It is here that students may seek the solutions to their problems and are once again placed on the path to a promising future.

We, the students at Pittsfield High School, are sincerely grateful for all the assistance given to us by the members of our Guidance Department. As we look back over the past three years, we become more aware of the real value of this department.

Mrs. Lamb helps Janet Riegel solve her college problem.

Informative college conferences like this one help students to choose a college best suited to their needs.

Mrs. Gladys Hickey and Mrs. Rita Moyer take care of the paper work for the Guidance Department.

Junior Prom—A Twilight

Former queen, Carol Congdon, crowns our new queen, Karen Downey.

Friday, June 2, 1967, many Juniors and their dates ventured through a jungle of tigers, giraffes, and birds. From the passageway we advanced into a captivating scene of "TWILIGHT SAFARI."

The gym had been transfigured into a genuine Safari. The giant giraffes and all their companions in the jungle surrounded us as we waltzed around the gym. A long narrow bridge was centered in the middle of the gym. While all the creatures walked briskly through the Safari, we danced to the music of John Galletley and his Orchestra.

Following the Prom, many went to Eastover for a mid-night dinner, more dancing, and to have the pleasure of swimming in the pool. As dawn approached and the sun arose over the mountains, the once lively, but now sleepy-eyed Juniors walked slowly to their cars to go home.

Chairmen: Roger Hartwell, Nancy Bookless, Kathy Frahm, Tony Massimiano.

Safari

Karen Downey, our queen, enjoys a pleasant chat with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hennessey.

"I think we're alone now . . ."

Long strings of gaily-colored campaign tags, momentary disputes of a candidate's qualifications, and posters on display in the cafeteria brought on the first enterprise of our senior year—the election of officers on October 20.

Were you peeking while I was in there?

It's all done with a wrist movement.

Class of '68

Secret ballot—you've got to be kidding!

The Class of 1968 was officially organized in January 1967, when its first leaders were elected. With the assistance of the Junior Class Council, the Officers chose the co-chairmen for the rings and junior prom. They also began the collection of class dues. Their duties were tackled with an ambitious spirit which helped to bring our junior year to a successful close.

Junior Class Officers

elects its officers

In a class with a membership of almost 900, good leadership is indeed necessary. The Officers we chose to lead our class had many difficult tasks to perform, and it is to their credit that all were completed successfully.

Senior Class Officers

Student Council

Seated: B. Farr; F. Schultz, President; T. Massimiano; C. Fields; K. Downey; D. Kennedy; M. J. Walsh; K. Coy; Standing: P. Massimiano; R. Rocca; K. Mangiardi, Assistant Secretary; K.

Keenley; P. Sharland; C. Schultz, Secretary; A. Hill, Treasurer; D. Williams, Vice-President; M. Kennedy; Mr. Fox, Advisor.

Under the advisorship of Mr. Joseph Fox, the Student Council insures proper co-ordination of school activities between other parts of the student government. It also serves as a link between the faculty and the student body. Frequently, Mr. Murphy addresses the Council concerning school policies. Each spring the Council sponsors a city-wide drive to raise money for the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation.

Student Government Works to Preserve Order

A well-organized governing body is needed at a high school as large as P.H.S. Of course, our officers are the class leaders; however, a Senior Class Council composed of seniors from each homeroom is needed to meet with the officers and to help carry out senior activities. It is this council that elects co-chairmen for senior events.

Band contributes to musical education and school spirit

Pittsfield High

Rehearsals are held just about anywhere, from Room 108 to a football field.

School Band

Whether it be a rally, a football game, a parade, or whatever, you'll find the Band adding much to the spirit of the occasion. Under the direction of Mr. Floyd Lancia, the Band spends much time in Room 108 practicing. Although it had many difficulties to overcome this year concerning rehearsal time, the 1968 Band was one of the finest ever.

Absent: Gregg Eason, Phil Glassanos, Kate Roberts.

Music helps relieve the Deeply engrossed in their music are Cathy Glassanos and Dave Marchetto.

Musical opportunities at Pittsfield High are not limited to the band. The Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Lancia, provides music at the Christmas assembly, spring music festival, and other activities. The Chorus, directed by Dr. Wayne, has upheld a fine standard of choral music. Another group under Dr. Wayne is the Madrigal Singers, specially chosen from the Chorus, who perform at various school and civic functions.

Pep Club and Cheerleaders

The Pep Club organizes rallies and skits, rents buses to go to away games and promotes a general pride in the students for their teams. The Pep Club raises money by selling buttons, beanies and cheer books. With this money, decorations for rallies and dances are purchased. The Pep Club has almost the entire student body as its members.

The Pep Club, under the competent leadership of two senior, two junior and two sophomore officers, leads the school in pep and vigor in support of the various athletic teams.

Members of the football team stand up to be noticed at a rally while the crowd cheers on.

This chaos may look bad now, but later, after the hard work of the Pep Club members, the auditorium is transformed into a purple and white heaven.

Varsity Cheerleaders

promote spirit

Under the direction of Mrs. Forino, our nine Varsity cheerleaders could not help but be a very able and talented group of girls. There are many hours of practice, and they must decorate for, and lead all rallies. Leading cheers at the games is the main duty of the cheerleaders and they have succeeded in raising much spirit at the games.

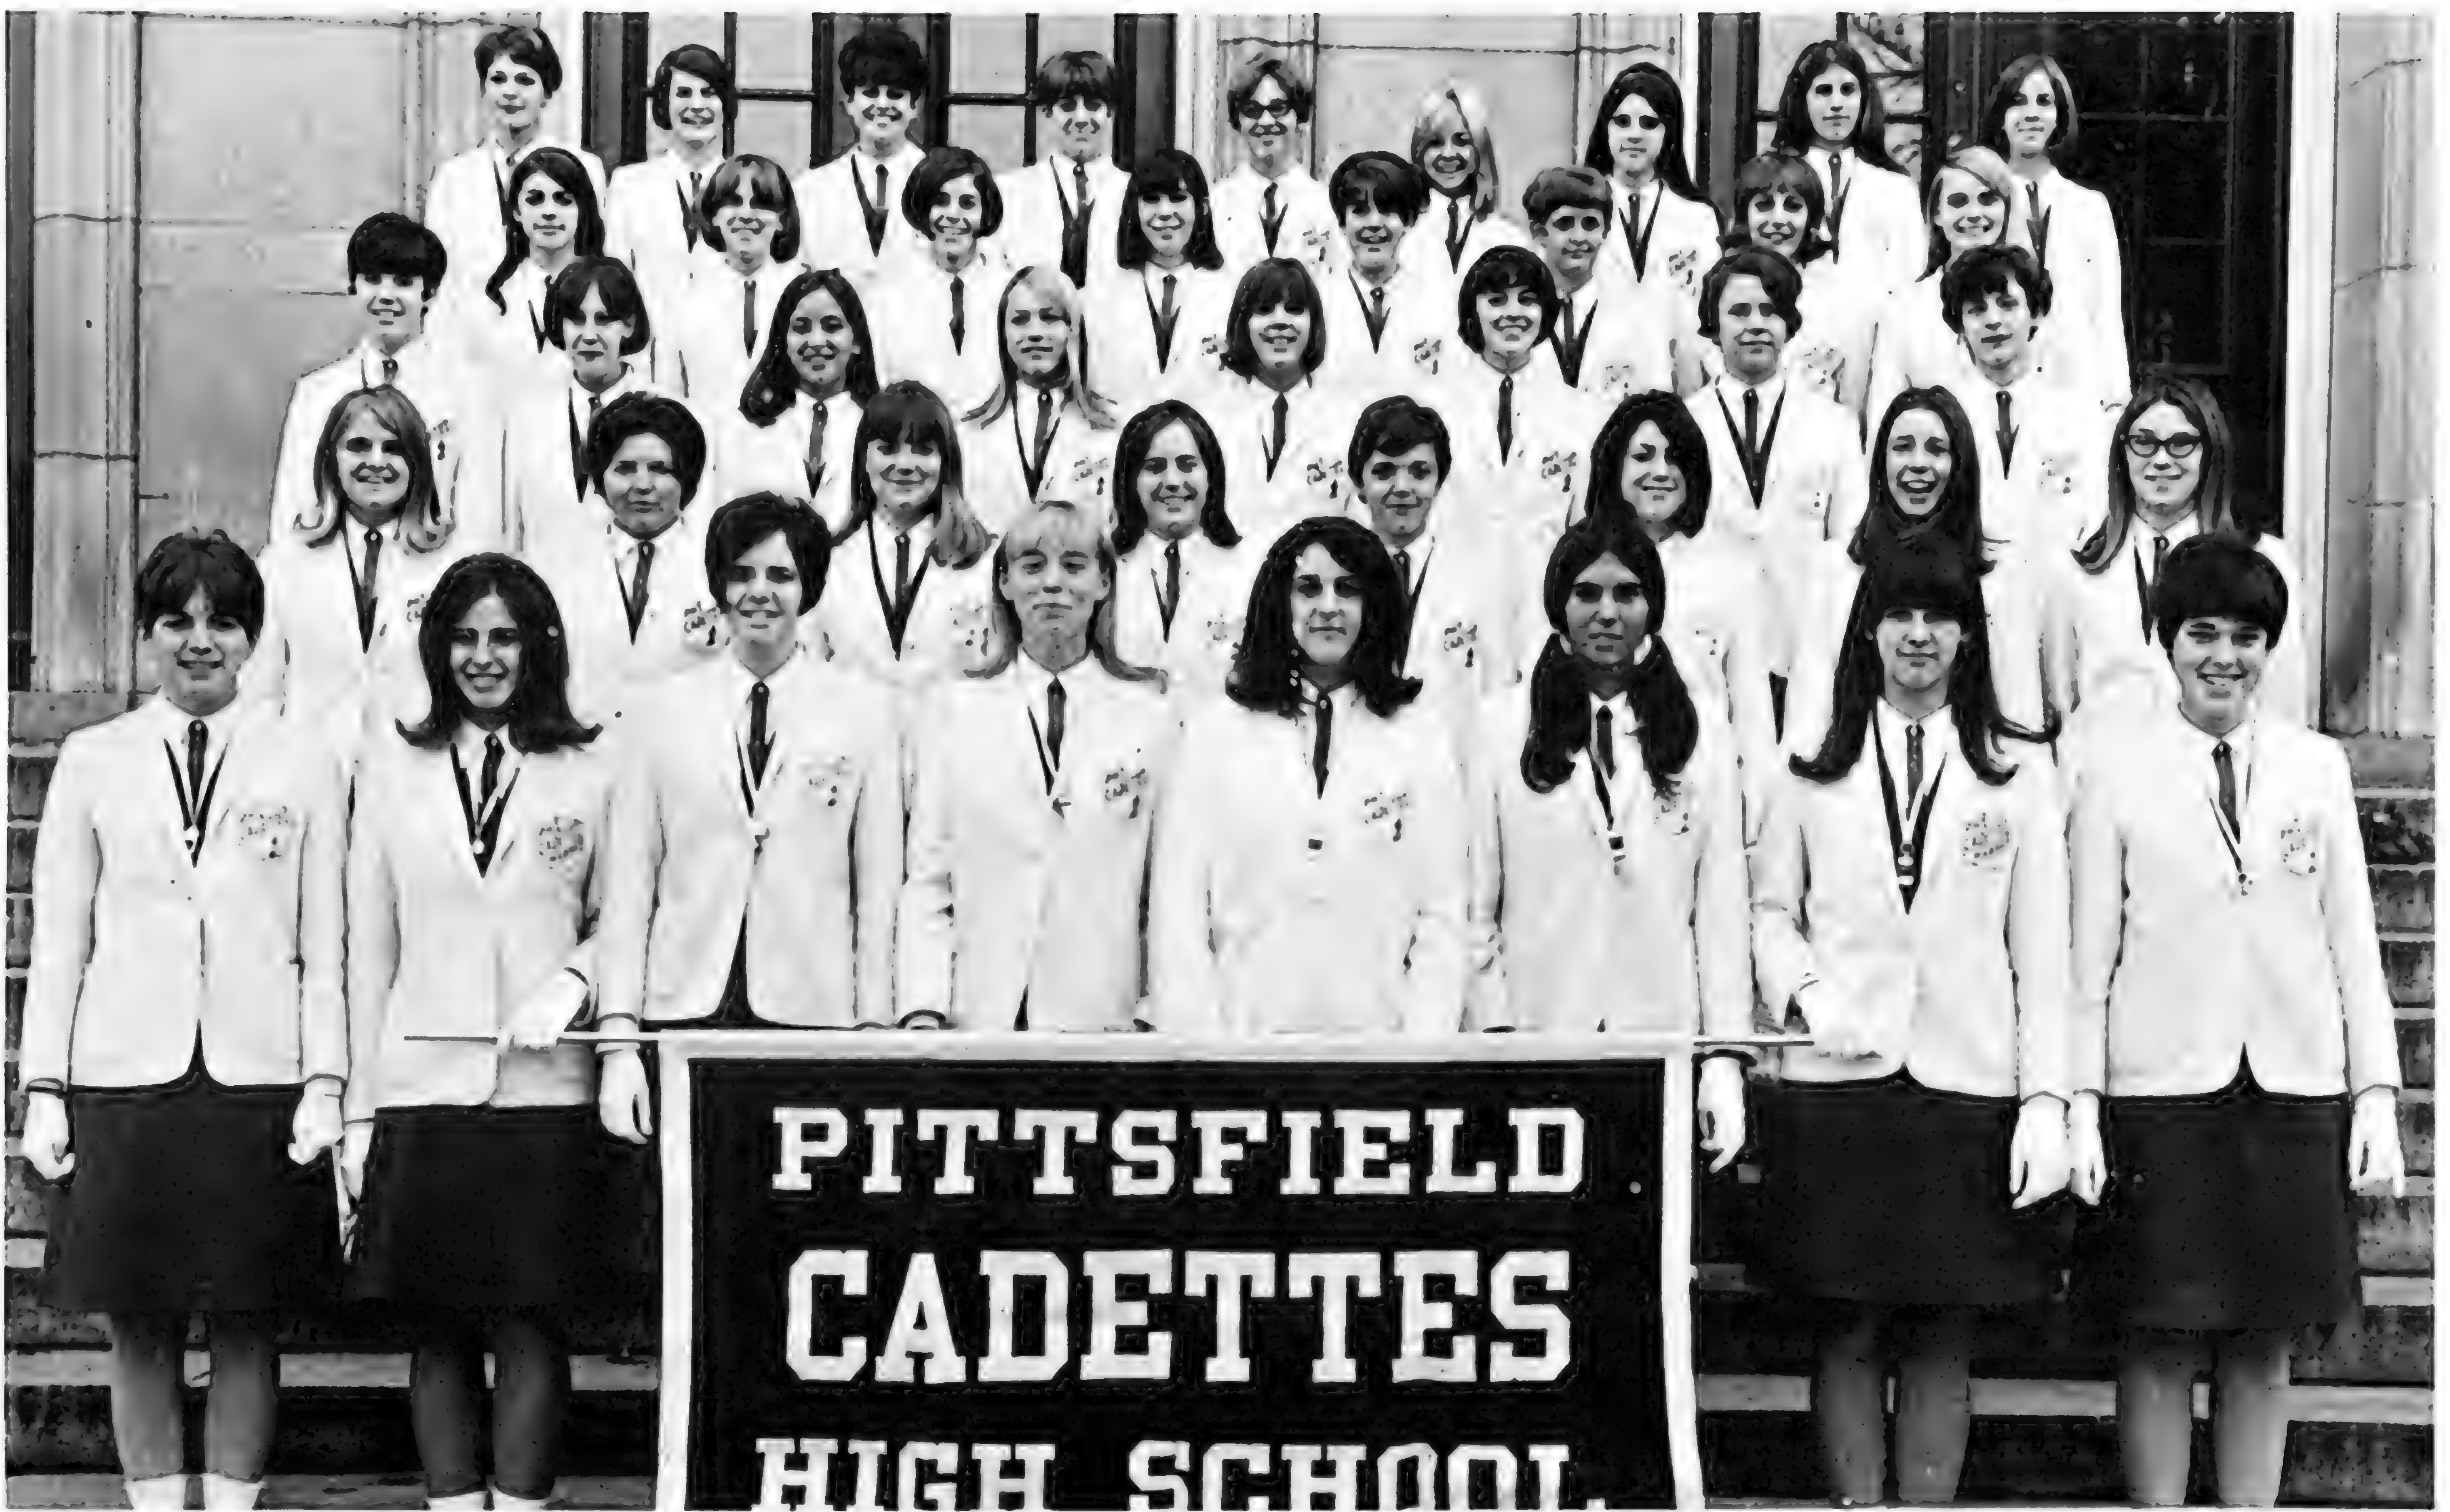

The cheerleaders look out tensely onto the soccer field as the team tries to score a point.

Senior Cadette Officers

First Row: S. Termohlen, C. Fields. Second Row: K. Coy, D. Walsh, J. Boivin.

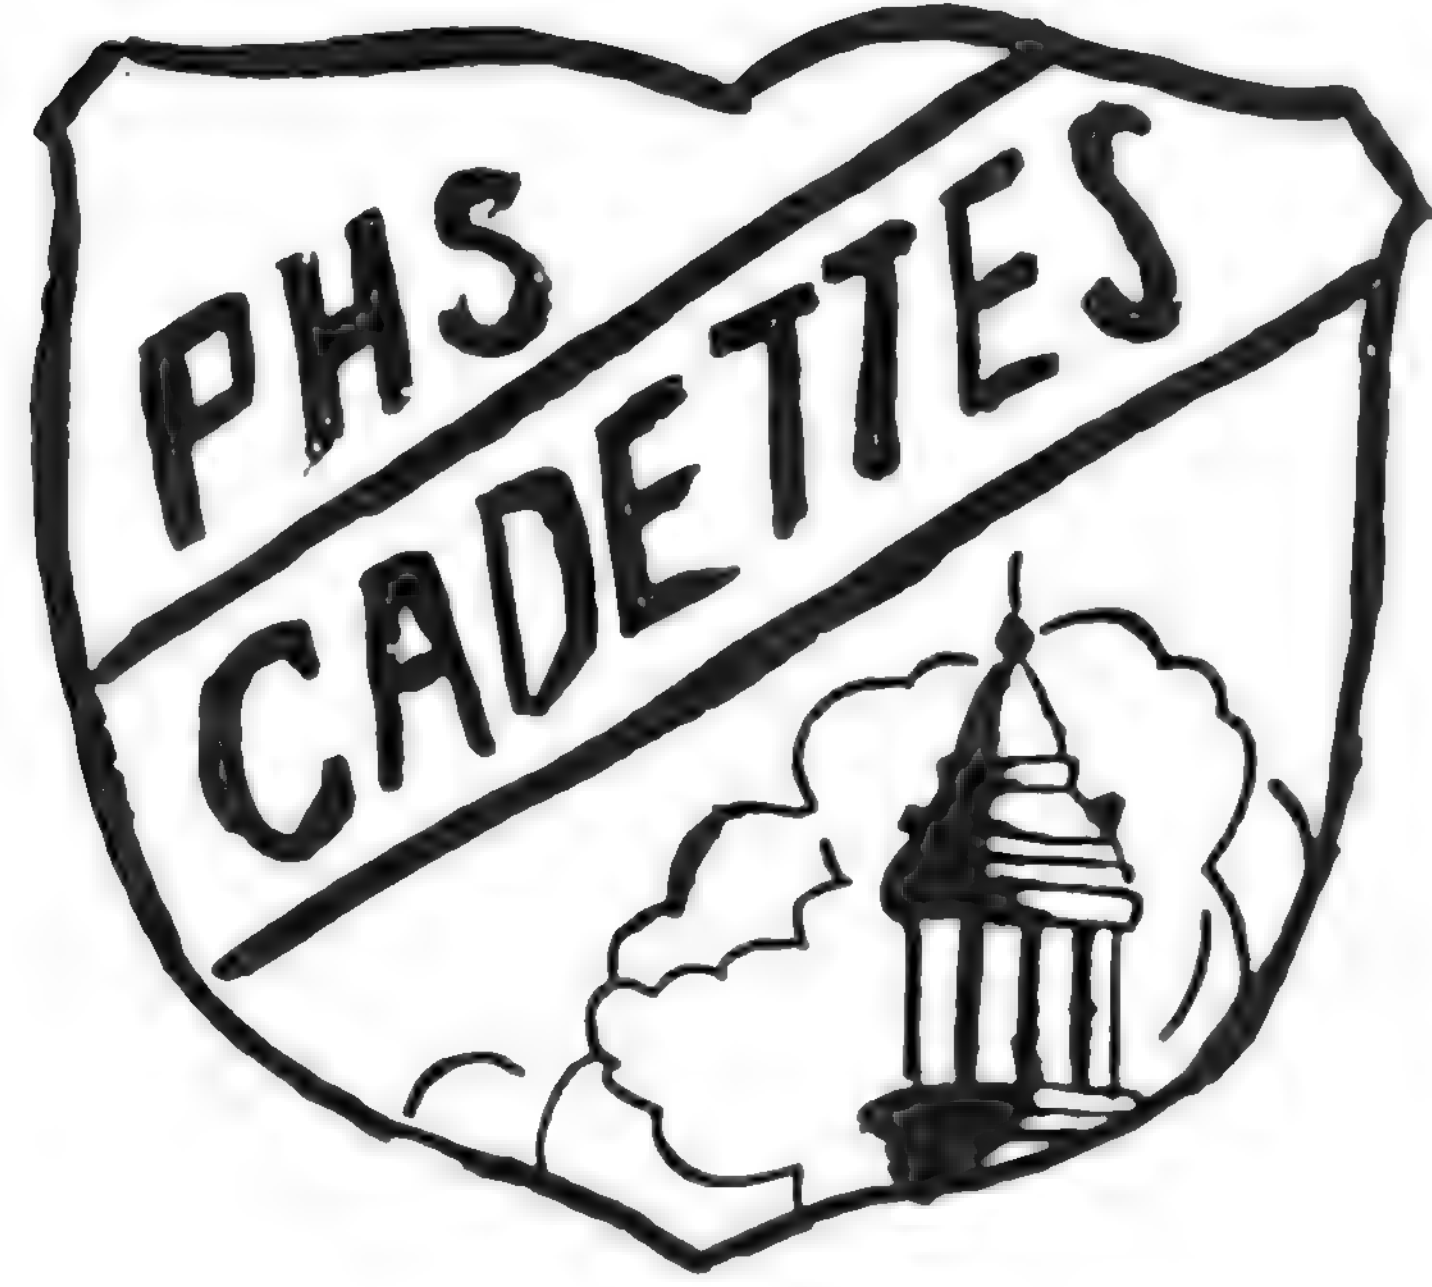

The Cadettes can be seen at every home football game waving their purple and white pom-poms. In addition to the games, they march in parades, participate in rallies, sponsor a large fashion show every year, and do various community services.

Each year, the Cadettes go on a trip to either Boston or Washington, D. C. They make the usual sight-seeing trips, dine out, and see a current, well-known movie.

They couldn't, of course, get along without the devoted help of their wonderful advisor, Miss "Mac." It is her hard work that has made the Cadettes the outstanding group that they are.

Thanks to the energetic board, faithful officers and wonderful Miss Mac, the Girl's Athletic Association completed a very successful year. Together with the usual activities, this year we had a hootenanny, and a class in modern dance. Fortunately, we were also able to include field hockey in our after school sports. The Valentine Dance this year was one of the most successful ever, and the board joyfully saw their months of planning pay off. At our annual banquet the officers sadly passed on their duties to a set of capable juniors who will carry on the tradition of our GAA.

Student's Pen stimulates the creative mood

Mary Blagdon, Editor-in-chief, Bill Levy and Julie Dubro, Assistant Editors, discuss the look of the new high school on the way to a Student's Pen meeting.

Mrs. Schlawin and Miss Hoffman, literary and business advisors, respectively, look up from an issue of the Student's Pen long enough to pose for a picture. Mrs. Delaiti, art advisor, was absent.

Four times a year, the Student's Pen is issued. This magazine offers great advantages to those who like to express and display their literary or artistic talents, since any qualified person may contribute to any one of its various staffs. The Pen, under its able editor, Mary Blagdon, has shown itself to be a worthwhile and creative magazine.

Past issues of the In General amuse Sue Pomerantz, Business Manager; Nancy Curley, Advertising Manager; Mark Mitchell, Photography Editor; and Chris Locke, Advertising Manager.

The fourth year of In General's existence has seen many improvements in the paper. Its concise, informative, and timely news has been very favorably accepted. It is possible that In General will give many P. H. S. students the impetus they need to excel as future journalists.

Students help others through U.S.F.

Twice a year the students at Pittsfield High School are asked to give their "fair share" for the support of local community services. This year a collection was taken in early November and February. Also, on November 4, the Student Council proclaimed a P.H.S. Spirit Day to help raise money. A rally, a parade, a football game, and a dance were planned. The proceeds from the dance went to the United Students' Fund.

Proceeds of Spirit Day went to U.S.F.

DECA

Many students at Pittsfield High School are given the opportunity of a supplementary career experience. This is through DECA, the Distributive Education Club of America. Students interested in retailing are able to take their training on the job where they are employed, while also fulfilling their regular school course requirements. They are given the chance to hear informative speakers and to go on field trips, which give them a great deal of helpful information.

DECA members take a rest at their annual Christmas Coffee Hour.

Two DECA members, Chris Hopper and Alan Cohen, sell Fanny Farmer candy in the lobby after school.

JETS and Radio Club create technical

The Technical Course also supports an extracurricular function. Under the auspices of the Junior Engineering Technical Society, future technicians hear prominent guest speakers, make frequent field trips, and work on varied experimental projects. About thirty-five boys have taken advantage of this opportunity to learn more about their field of concentration than their regular school work can include.

Mr. Minneci gives a few bits of advice to Chris Hall and Mark Hertel at a JET's meeting.

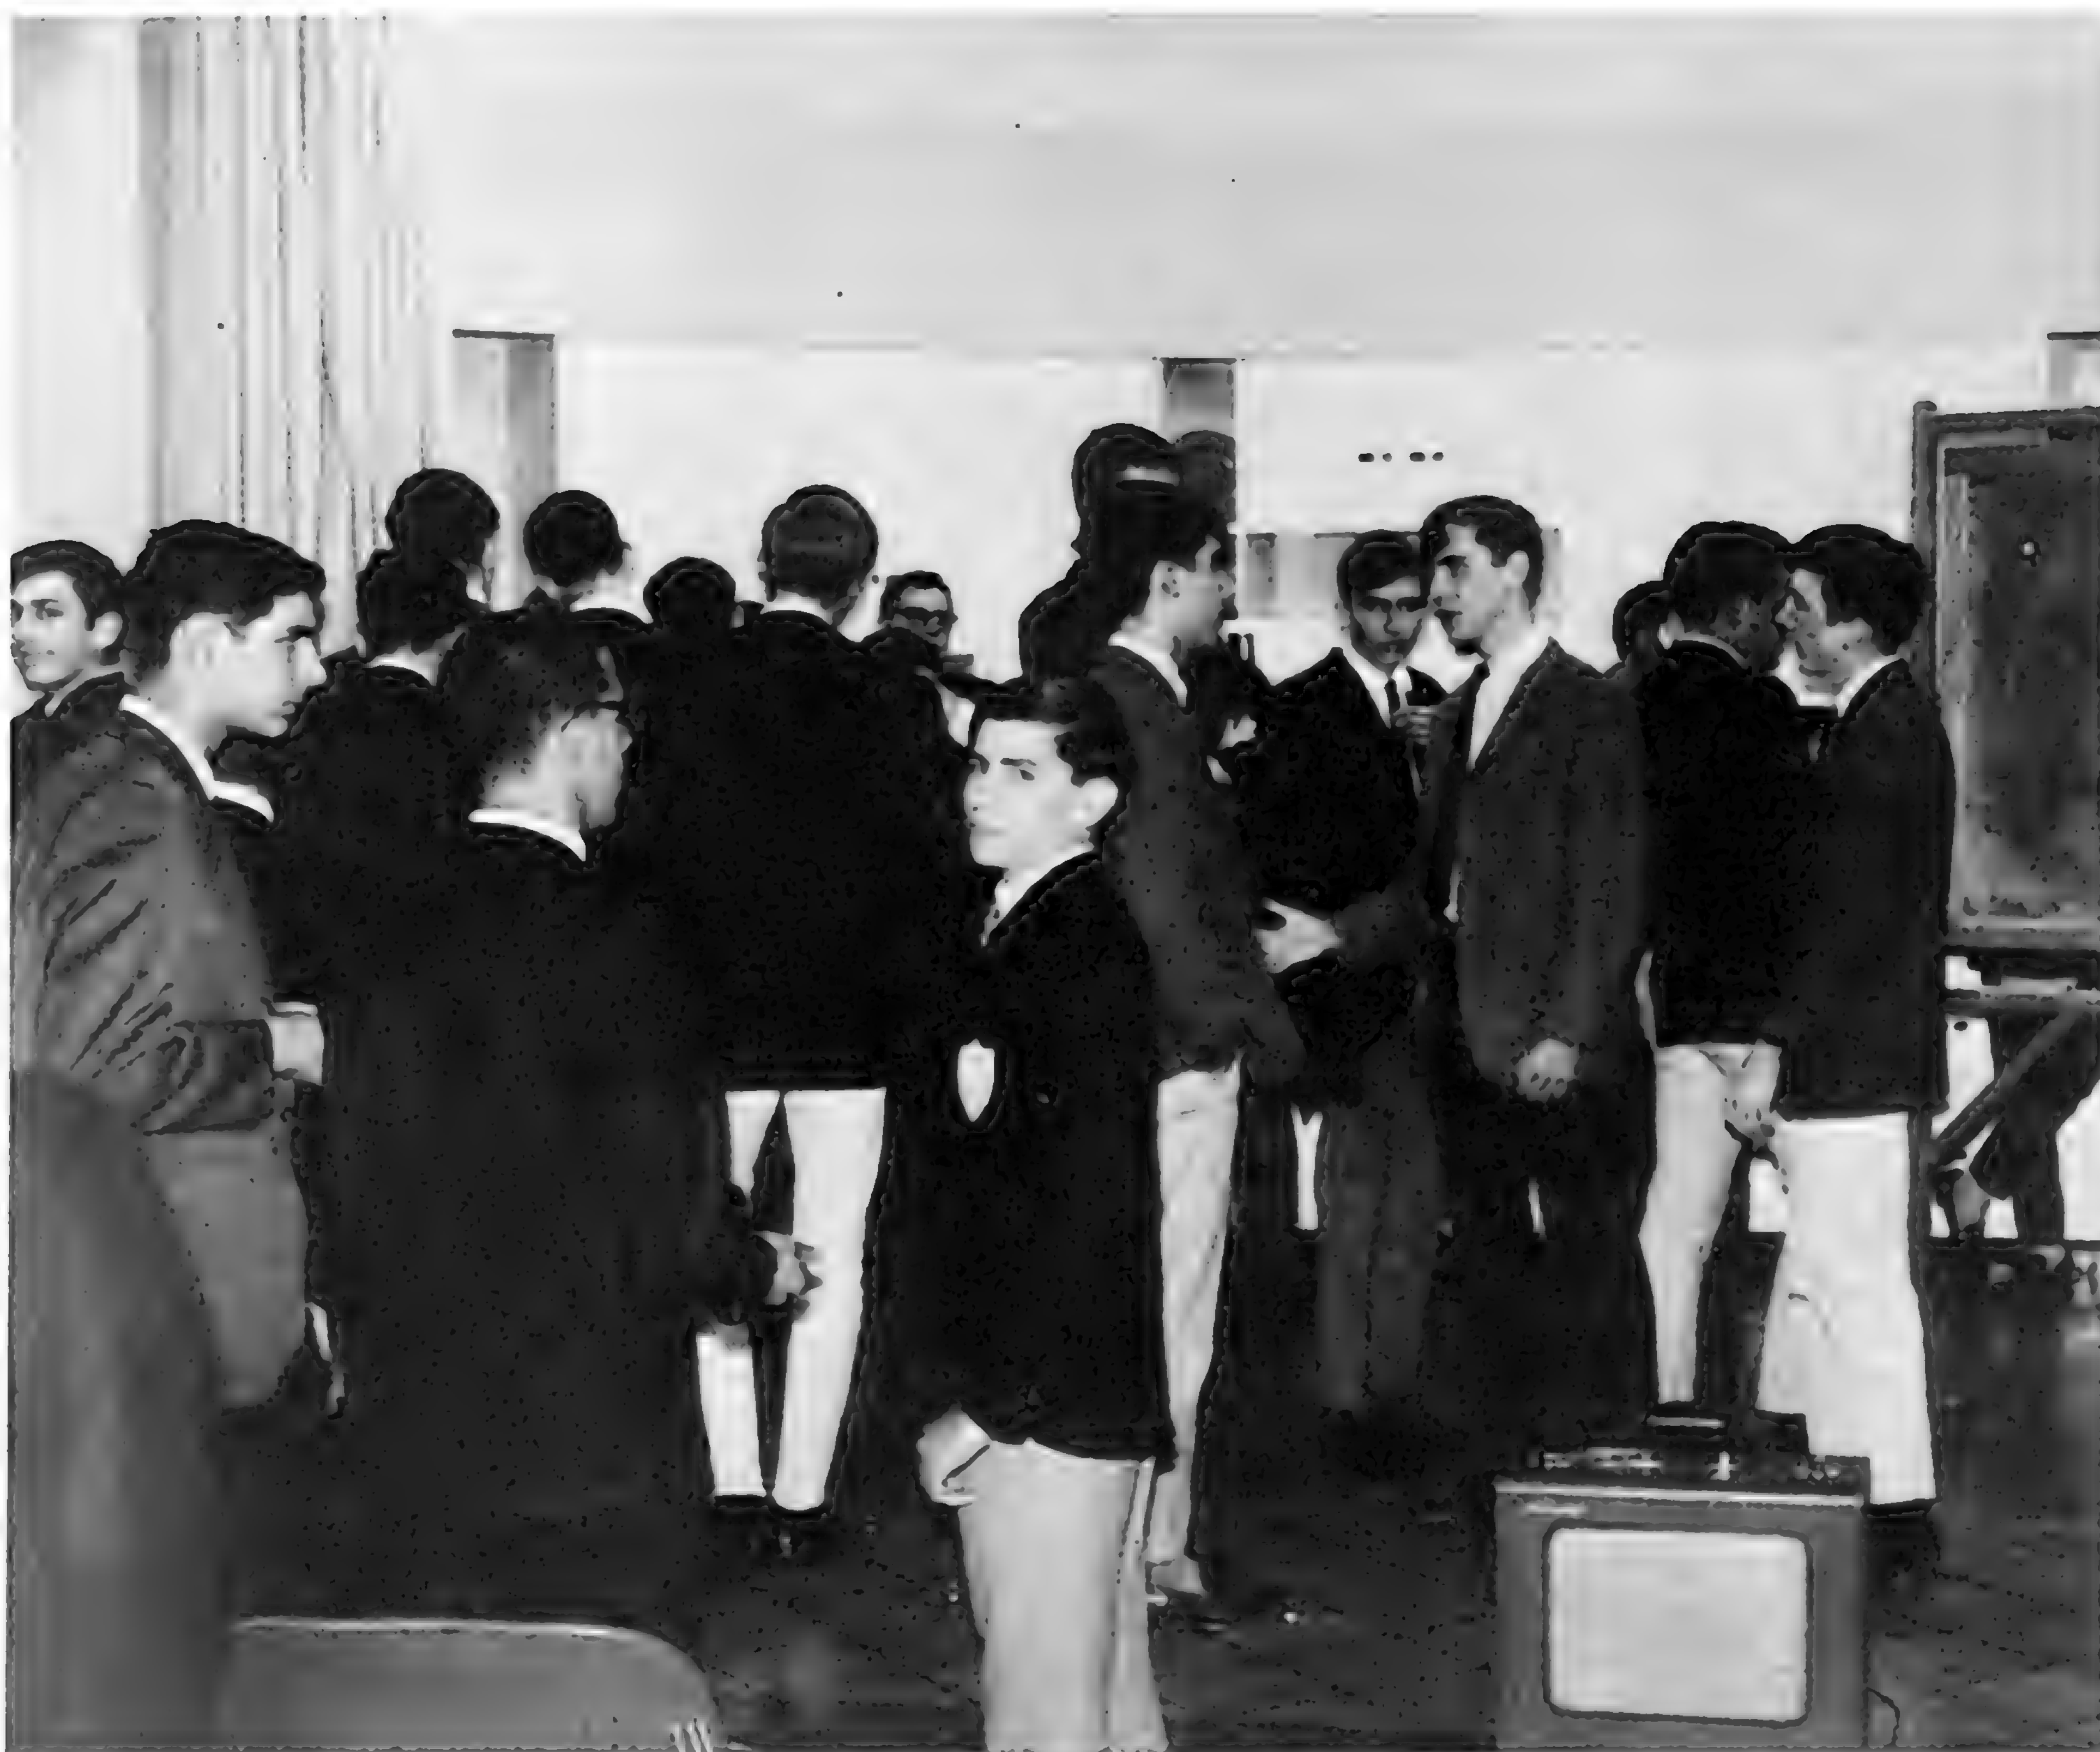

Chris Hall, President of the JETS, waits for silence in the back of the room before he begins the meeting.

Vice-President of JETS, David Genest, always has something up his sleeve to pull on his fellow JET members.

geniuses

The JETS gather to discuss the subject of the evening.

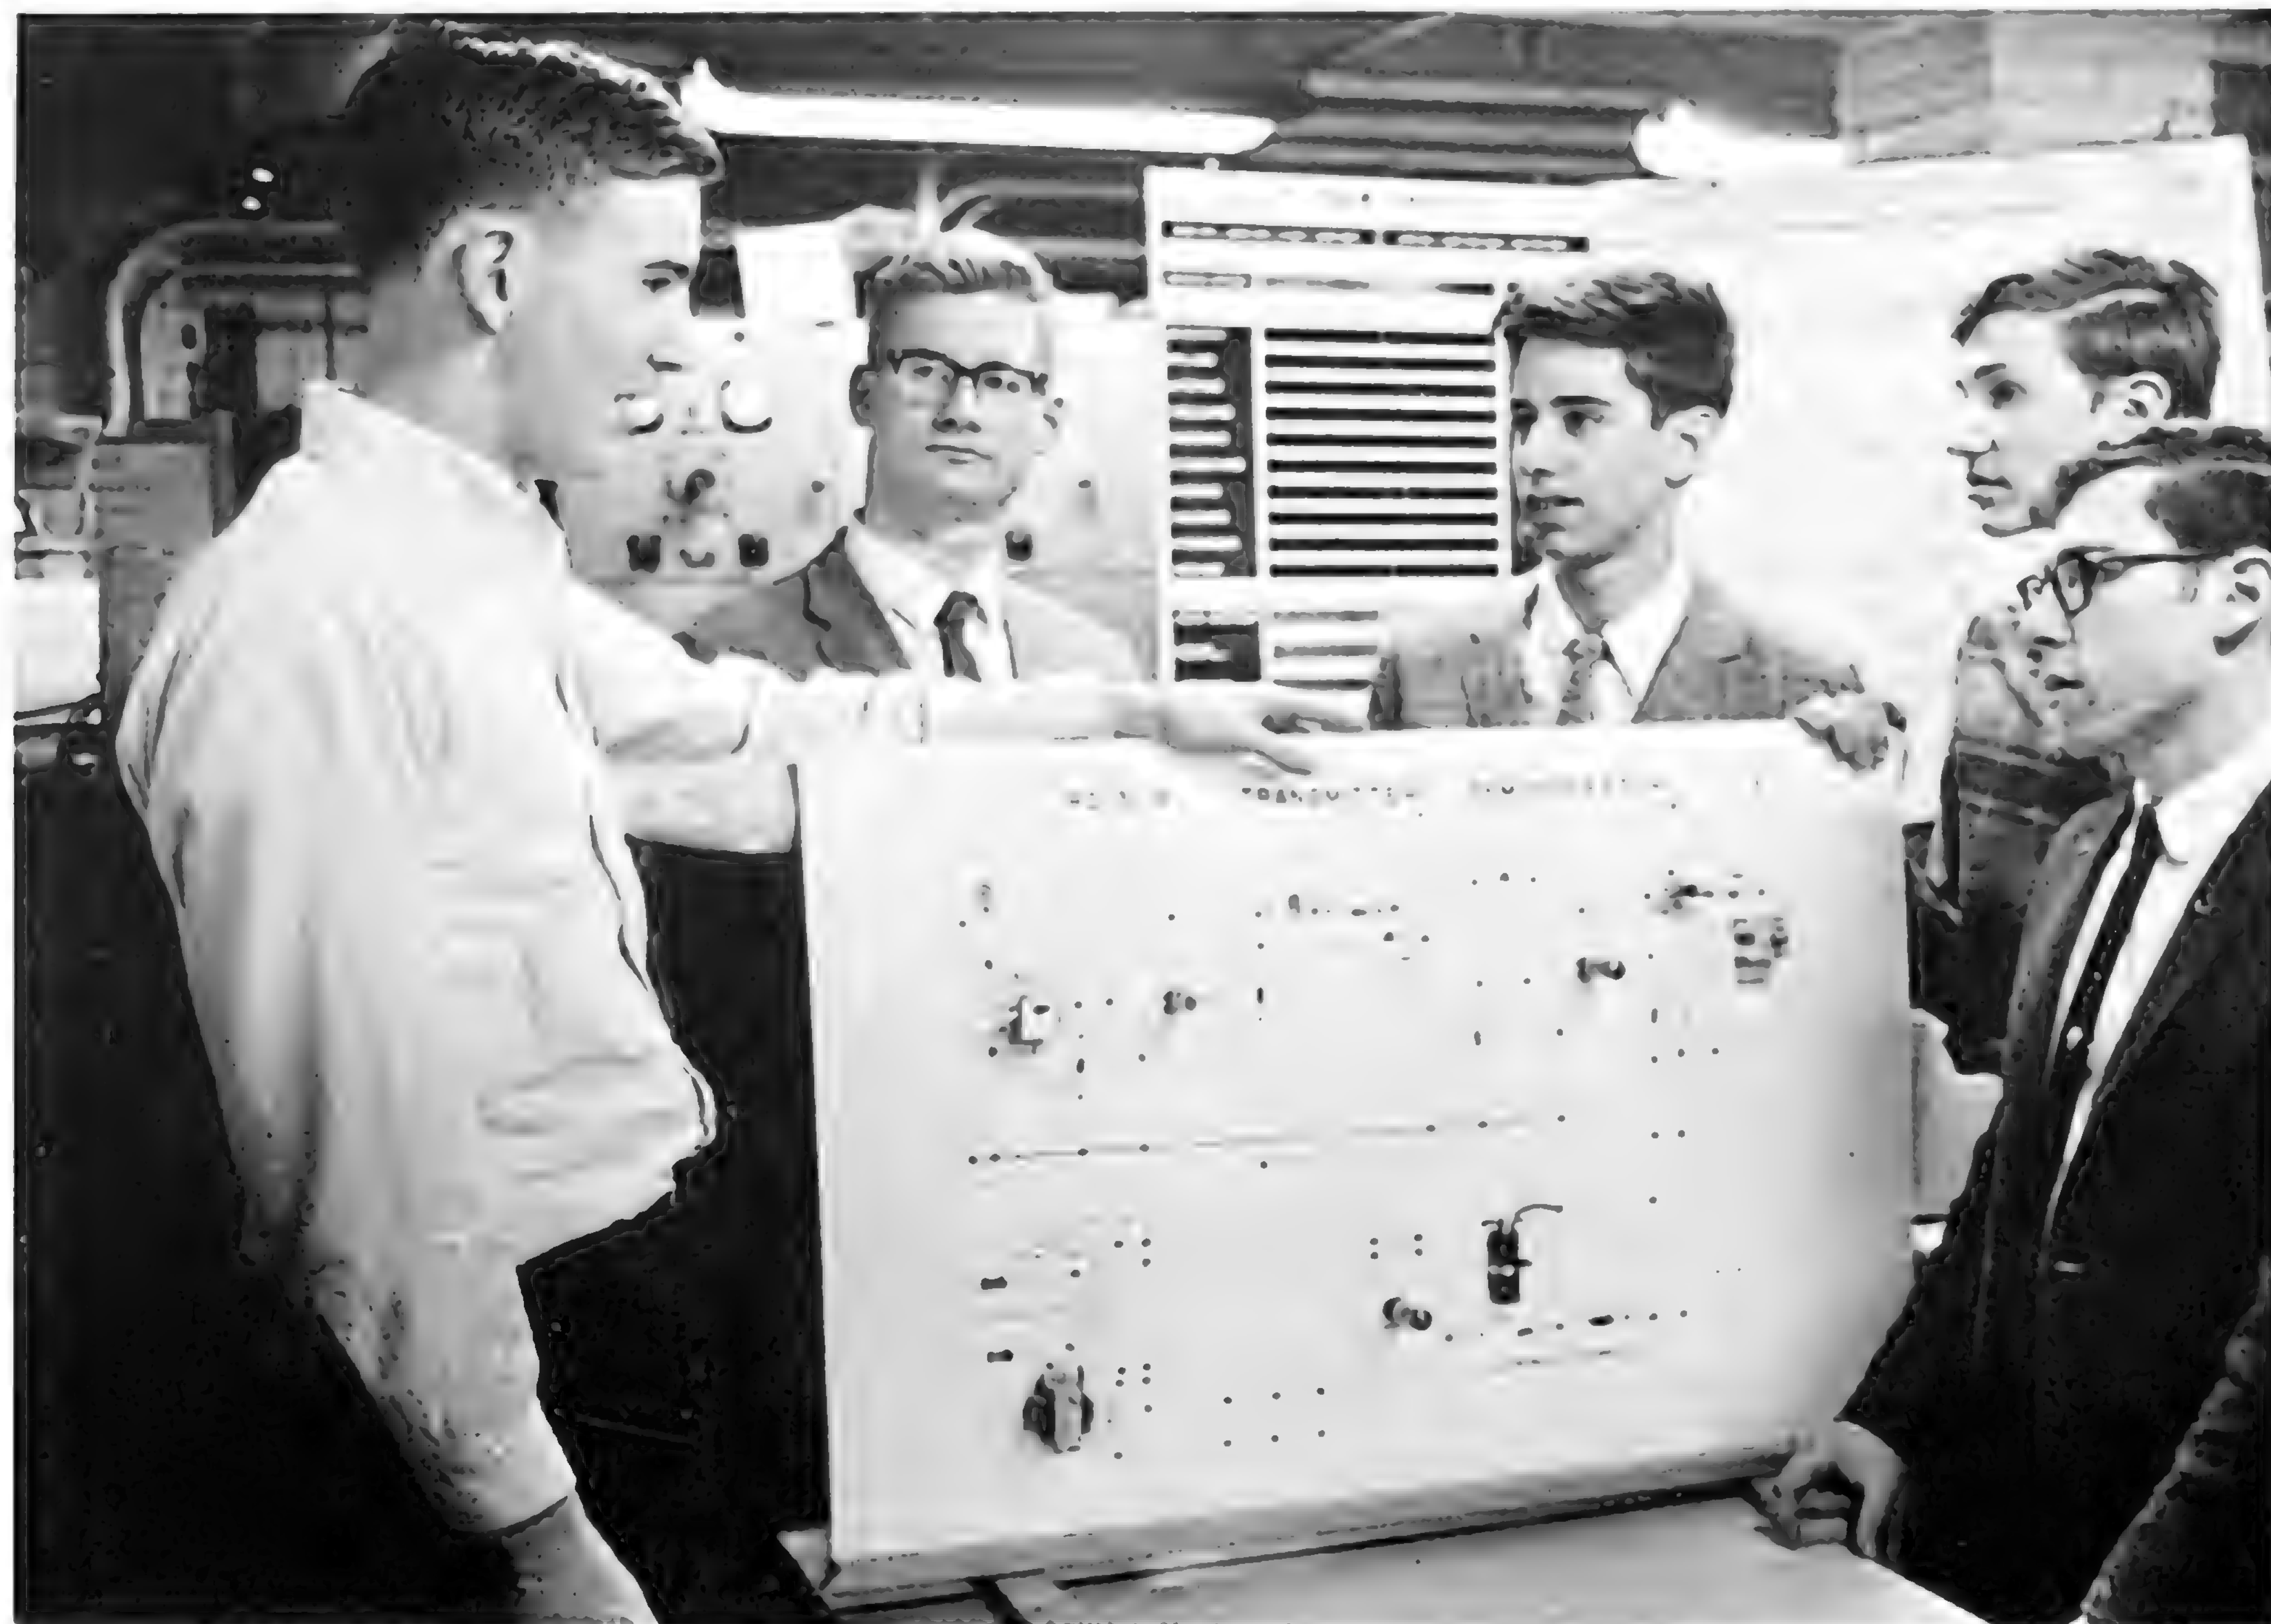

"What do you mean last week's minutes are wrong?" asks David O'Neil, Secretary of JETS.

"Of course, I've paid up my dues," says Ron Salomone, Treasurer of JETS.

Clark Nichols, Mr. Sarna, advisor, Gary Thomas, Steve Narden and Raymond Frankel.

In its two years of existence, the Radio Club has developed dedicated members. Most are amateur radio operators, or, as they are more commonly called, HAMS. They discuss and learn about their interest, as well as work on projects concerning HAM radios, in an effort to further the amateur aspect of this electrical field which so encompasses our present world.

"I thought this was MY section!"

The traditional Christmas tree completes the decorations of the lobby.

Mr. Murphy delivers his Christmas address to the student body.

Co-chairmen of the Christmas Play and Decorating, Donna Walsh and Roger Hartwell.

Christmas at P.H.S.

The Christmas tradition at P.H.S. consists of a program sponsored by the Senior class and the decoration of the lobby. The Class of '68, headed by Donna Walsh and Roger Hartwell, presented "Doubly Good" and entertainment by various groups and seniors to two assemblies of the student body.

Karen Coy recites an original speech on the nature of the holiday season.

Both Santas realize that the Christmas season is a time of mutual co-operation.

. . . and our thanks to Mr. French,

Mr. Gilbert French, an excellent math teacher, gave up much of his spare time to become the advisor of the Class of '68. We owe him many thanks for his constant share and interest in our activities.

Mr. French brought many new and unique ideas with him that he has incorporated into our plans. We are very pleased that he was able to spend so much of his time with us on every activity and event.

our class advisor.

Mr. French seems to enjoy confusing his senior math class with a complicated graph.

Mr. French gives a few last-minute instructions to the Senior Election Committee.

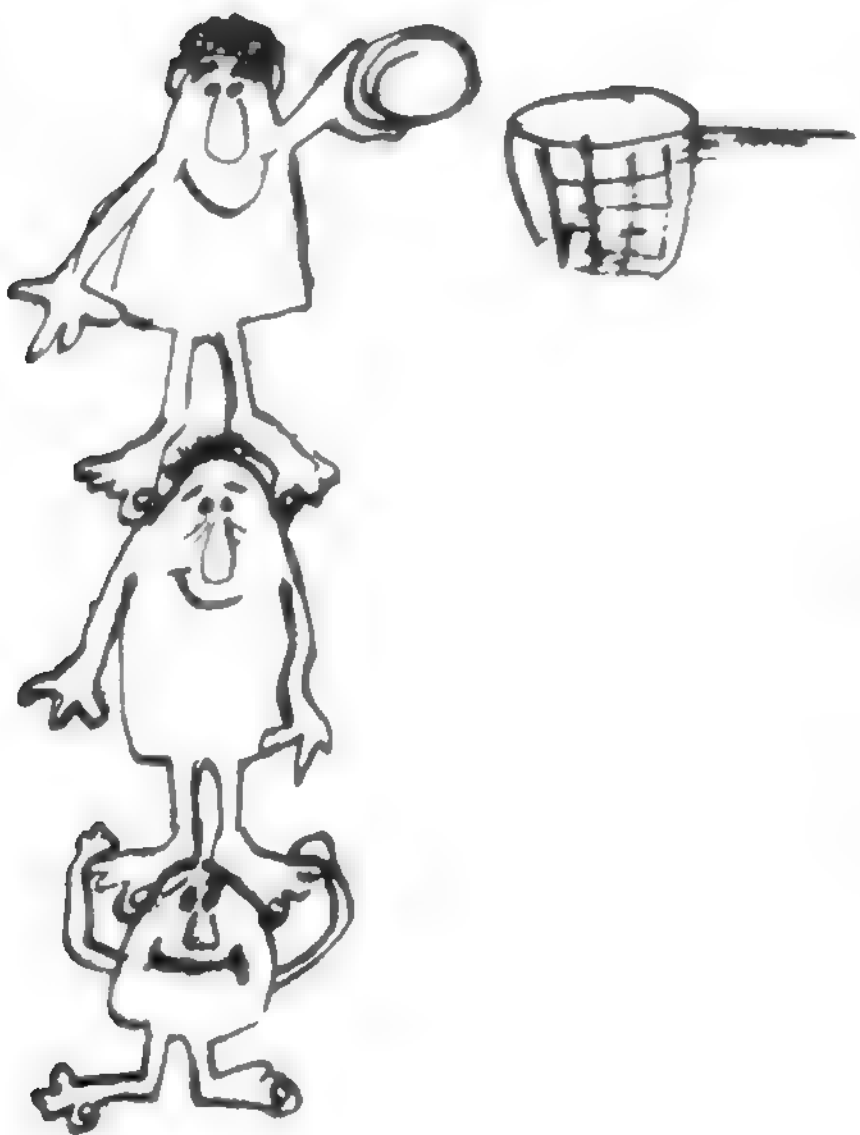

Mr. French looks on as Karen Salzarulo and Eileen McInerney admire their new class rings.

When the students leave after school, Mr. French will teach math to anyone!

P. H. S. Western Mass. Champs!

Leaders of 1967 Western Mass. Champions
Dan Scace, Coach Joe Gleason and Wayne Ciepiela.

The Pittsfield High Generals were undefeated in the Northern Berkshire Football League this year under the guidance of head-coach Joe Gleason. This defense-minded team compiled a lopsided total of 143 points, to 65 for their opponents. Offensive and defensive standouts Tom Rilla and Paul Metallo each scored 24 of these, with Tom Barry kicking 13 extra points.

With the quarterbacking of Frank Shultz and the outstanding running of Tom Rilla and Dale Phelps, the mighty Generals ran all over their first four opponents before being stopped by the ever-powerful White Plains club of New York, in an independent game. This, however, did not dampen their spirit. Pittsfield bounced back by handing their next opponents decisive defeats. The Generals clinched the N.B.L. title in their 20-12 victory over Wachonah Regional, which saw the defense hold a determined Dalton club and the offense supply a punch. In the last game of the season Pittsfield captured the city championship by running over, under, and through the confused Crusaders of St. Joseph's in a 21-0 rout.

Special mention should be given to the coaching staff and all the members of the team that gave their time and talent to make P. H. S. number one.

P. H. S. Scalps Warriors

Coach Ralph Gionet's Soccer Team, captained by Bob Rosenbaum, Ned Dripps and Terry Goodrich, had a most eventful season, placing third in the newly formed North Berkshire Soccer League. For their fourteen game schedule, the team compiled nine wins and five losses.

Following a 1-0 set-back to defending champion Wahconah Regional early in the season, Pittsfield's booters dealt the Warriors a surprising, but definite, 2-1 defeat in a thrilling contest at the Dalton field.

Although defeating Wahconah, its long time rival, Pittsfield was unable to conquer the unpredictable St. Joseph's team, losing two hard fought games 2-1 and 2-0.

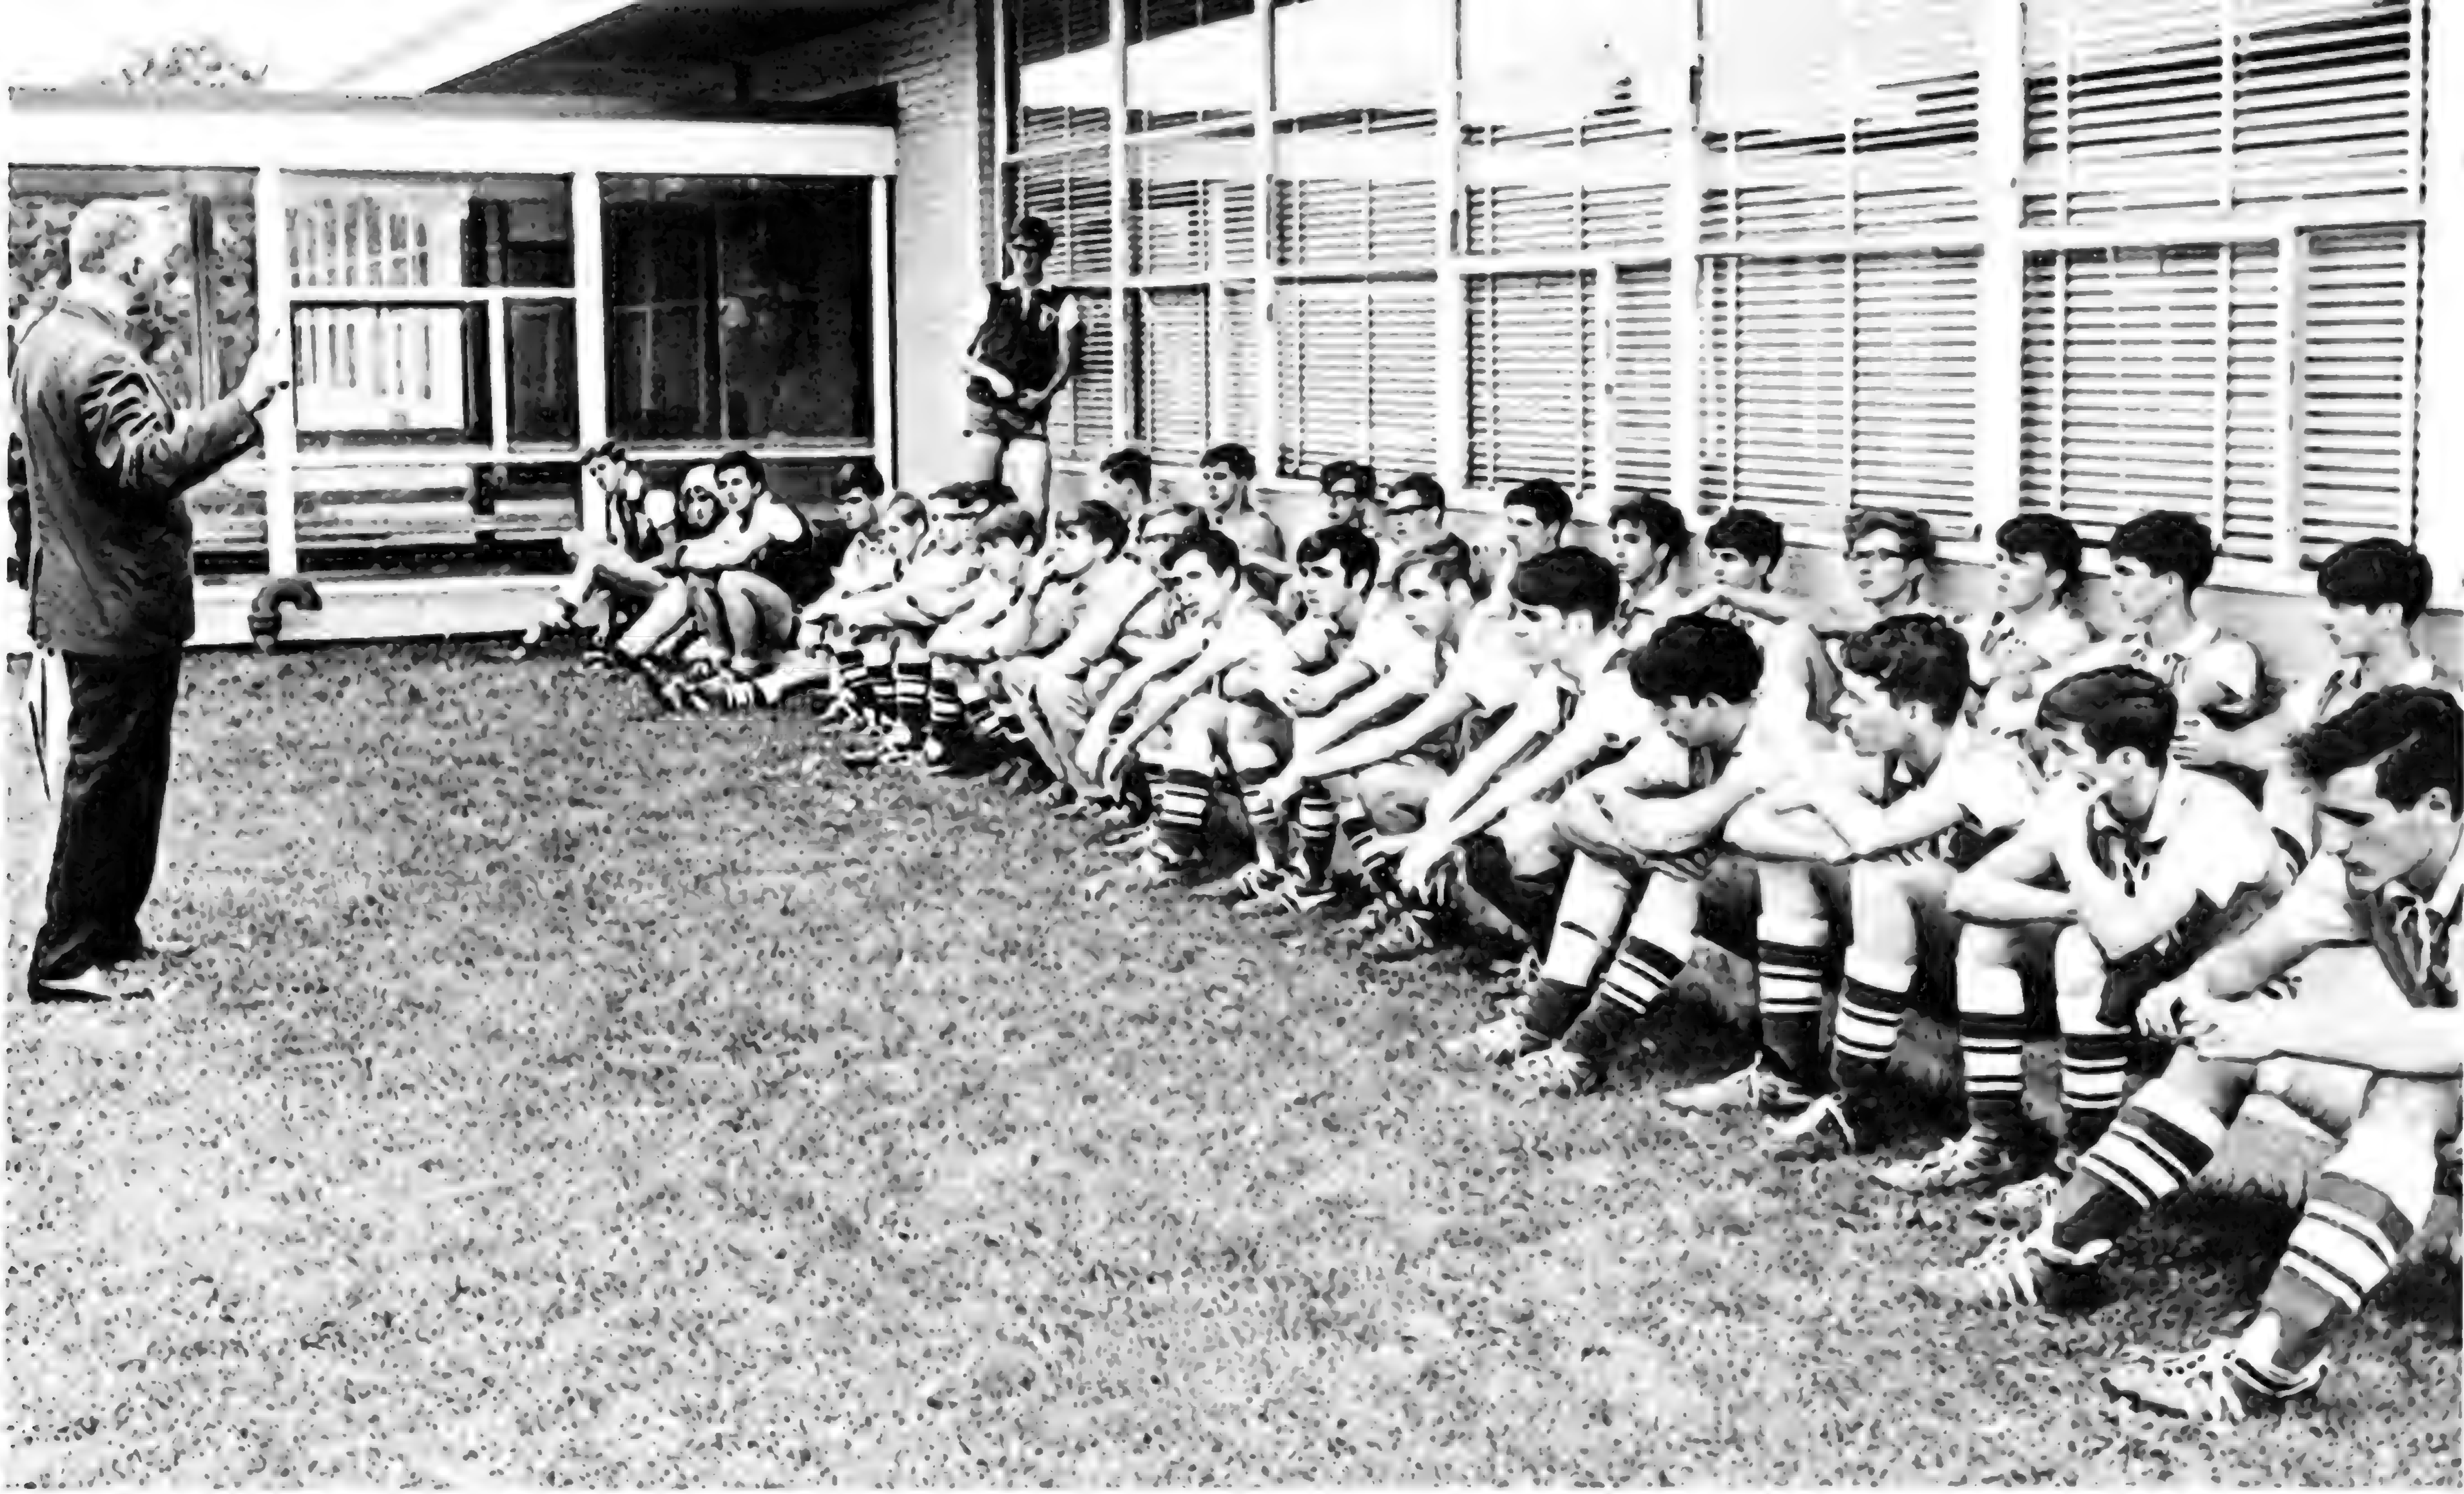

This has been one of the most talented teams ever fielded by Pittsfield High School. Each member exhibited the traits that make a winner. It was a very eventful year and one which will be long remembered by both team and fans.

Rookie Coach Patti Wins the Eighth Interscholastics

Under the guidance of first year coach Ron Patti, the Pittsfield High Ski Team had another successful season. Led by co-captains Ned Dripps and Terry Goodrich, with strong support from Robert Rusk, Dave Ames, and Tony Massimano, the team won the two day Berkshire Interscholastic Ski Meet for an unprecedented eighth straight time. Following their victory, Coach Patti and his team were invited to compete in the New England Interscholastics at Hanover, New Hampshire. The schuss-boomers were in second place after the first day Alpine events but fell short on the Nordic events during the final day and placed seventh. With the depth of the team and Coach Patti's guidance, it is possible that their winning ways will continue.

Coach Moynihan ends decade of mentoring at P.H.S.

Coach Frank Moynihan

After ten years as head basketball coach at Pittsfield High School, Frank J. Moynihan will resign. Under his guidance seven teams have qualified for the State Tournament, two have reached the finals, and one in 1962 gained the championship.

Suffering heavy losses from graduation, Coach Moynihan opened this season with only three returning lettermen. Inexperience hurt the Generals as they dropped their first five pre-season games. However, sparked by Co-captains Bob Kerwood and Mike Mougin, the team jelled in their league opener and defeated Wahconah.

The scrappy cagers hustled throughout the season but were unable to match the height and scoring ability of their Northern Berkshire League rivals and finished a disappointing fifth. For his decade of fine coaching, Pittsfield High School gives its best wishes to Coach Moynihan in the future.

Seven Wrestlers Qualify for State Meet

Co-captain Terry Bannick demonstrates the art of driving an opponent through the mat.

Sparked by co-captains Dan Scace and Terry Bannick, the wrestling team gained valuable experience in its second year of varsity competition. In an extensive twelve meet schedule, Coach George Sylvester's wrestlers achieved a 6-6 record in the Western Massachusetts League competition. Their non-league record was 4 wins, 3 losses.

The team placed fourth in the Western Massachusetts Championships but seven members of the team qualified for the State Championships, and Co-Captains Terry Bannick and Dan Scace reached the semi-finals.

Once again the more experienced Springfield teams dominated the league, but the Generals scored several impressive victories. Coach Sylvester was pleased with the increased interest in the sport of wrestling that provided enough experience and manpower to fill all weight classes. The most outstanding records were those of Dan Scace 9-1 Terry Bannick 7-3, and Jay Aronstein 5-3.

Swimmers take second at Western Mass.

Coached by Robert Magee, the fishmen of P.H.S. comprised of twelve seniors and nine sophomores, finished the 1967-68 season with a twelve wins, one loss and a second place finish in Western Massachusetts.

After losing two state champions through graduation, the swim team lacked its one-two punch and vital first places. However, the team, with co-captains Phil Glassanos and Dave Marchetto, showed much ability and depth by scoring heavily in each meet with a 60 point per meet average. Other teammates who have made a heavy contribution to the point total were divers Norm Sosin and Alan Hinckley, and swimmers Dennis Ward, Greg Eason, and sophomore hopeful Steve Strang.

The Generals downed their first five opponents before dropping a meet to the State Champions, Holyoke High. This did not dampen their spirit as they sank their next seven opponents.

Pittsfield High bestows its gratitude and best wishes to Coach Magee and the departing members of the team and wishes good luck for next year's team.

Hockey Team Finishes Record Season

The brother combination of Bobby and Gene Fitzgerald led the team's scoring.

In a hard-fought season the 1968 Pittsfield High Hockey team wound up with a 11-2-2 record and narrowly missed taking our second divisional championship in two years. Competing in the Wright division of the Western Massachusetts Hockey League, the Generals beat a powerful Ludlow squad in the final game of the season to gain a tie for first place. Later the next week Ludlow clinched the title by downing Springfield Trade.

Frank Blowe, last year's mentor, was prevented from directing the team this year because of a back injury. His replacement, Carl Moffatt, is very qualified, being a coach and player for the local Highlawn Jersey team.

Leading the Generals in scoring this year were Gene and Bob Fitzgerald with 38 goals 21 assists, and 20 goals 25 assists respectively. Others who added to the totals were Neil Eddy and defense-men Mike Simon and Dave Toomey. The goalie cage was protected by Pete Soulock, who thrilled the crowds with beautiful saves in the season-ending victory over Ludlow.

The Generals continued the winning tradition that started three years ago and have set a high mark of competence and sportsmanship for future teams.

HONORS

SIX SENIORS

We are very proud of having six of our fellow classmates as semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship program this year. To achieve such high scores on this nationwide test is an accomplishment requiring a great amount of knowledge in various fields. As one can see, the semifinalists have varied interests and solid backgrounds in many subjects. We hope that their success continues and follows them throughout their college years.

An A.P. math and biology student, Robert Zalutsky's name can always be found on the honor roll at the end of each term. Next year Bob hopes to attend Rice College and major in chemistry.

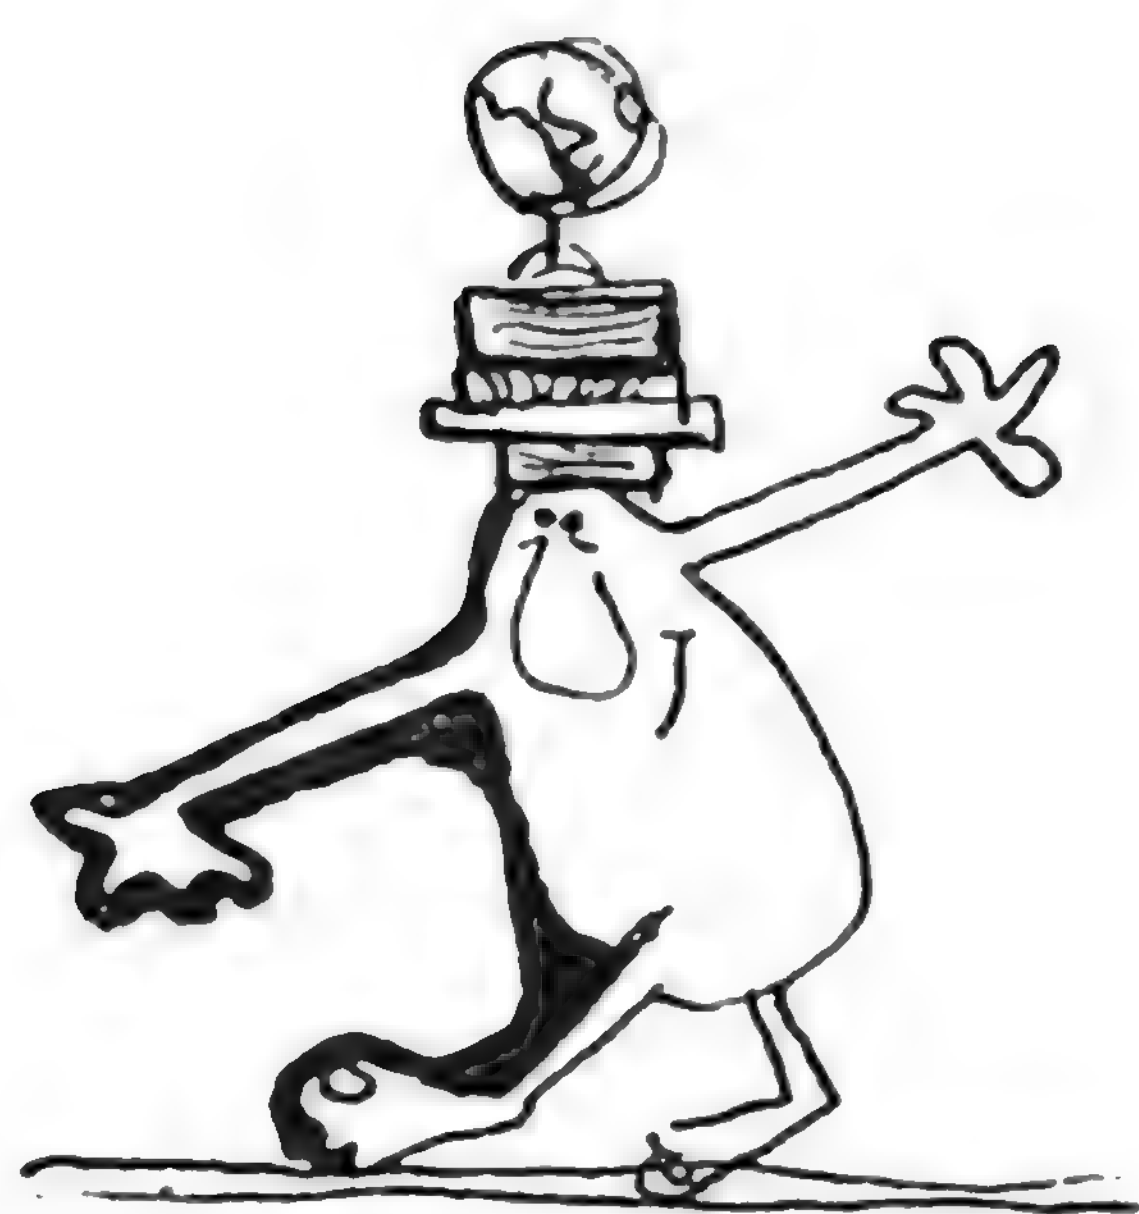

Jean Komuniecki, a senior Cadette, is the language editor for the Student's Pen. An A.P. English student, Jean hopes to begin her major in English next fall at Mt. Holyoke College.

WIN TOP NATIONAL MERIT AWARDS

Laurie Kirby divides her time between her schoolwork, her contributions to the Student's Pen, and a part-time job at the Telephone Company. Laurie will be attending Syracuse University next year where she plans to major in journalism.

James Donna, an A.P. math and physics student, spends much of his free time working with the debating club or tutoring in physics at the high school. Jim hopes to major in physics next year at either MIT or RPI.

A homeroom treasurer and representative, Karen Lahey's other activities include her membership in the school band and orchestra. Her A. P. Subjects are math and biology, and she hopes to continue her study in biology next year at Mt. Holyoke College.

Judy Quillard's name is a familiar one to anyone who reads the Student's Pen. As poetry editor, she not only contributes to her own section, but as a French V student Judy also writes poems in that language for the Pen. Judy is an A. P. math student, and math will become her major next year at Jackson College.

Merit Commendations awarded to twenty-two seniors

We are also proud to announce that twenty-two seniors received Letters of Commendation for the excellent scores they received on the National Merit test. Once again Pittsfield High has achieved an outstanding academic record.

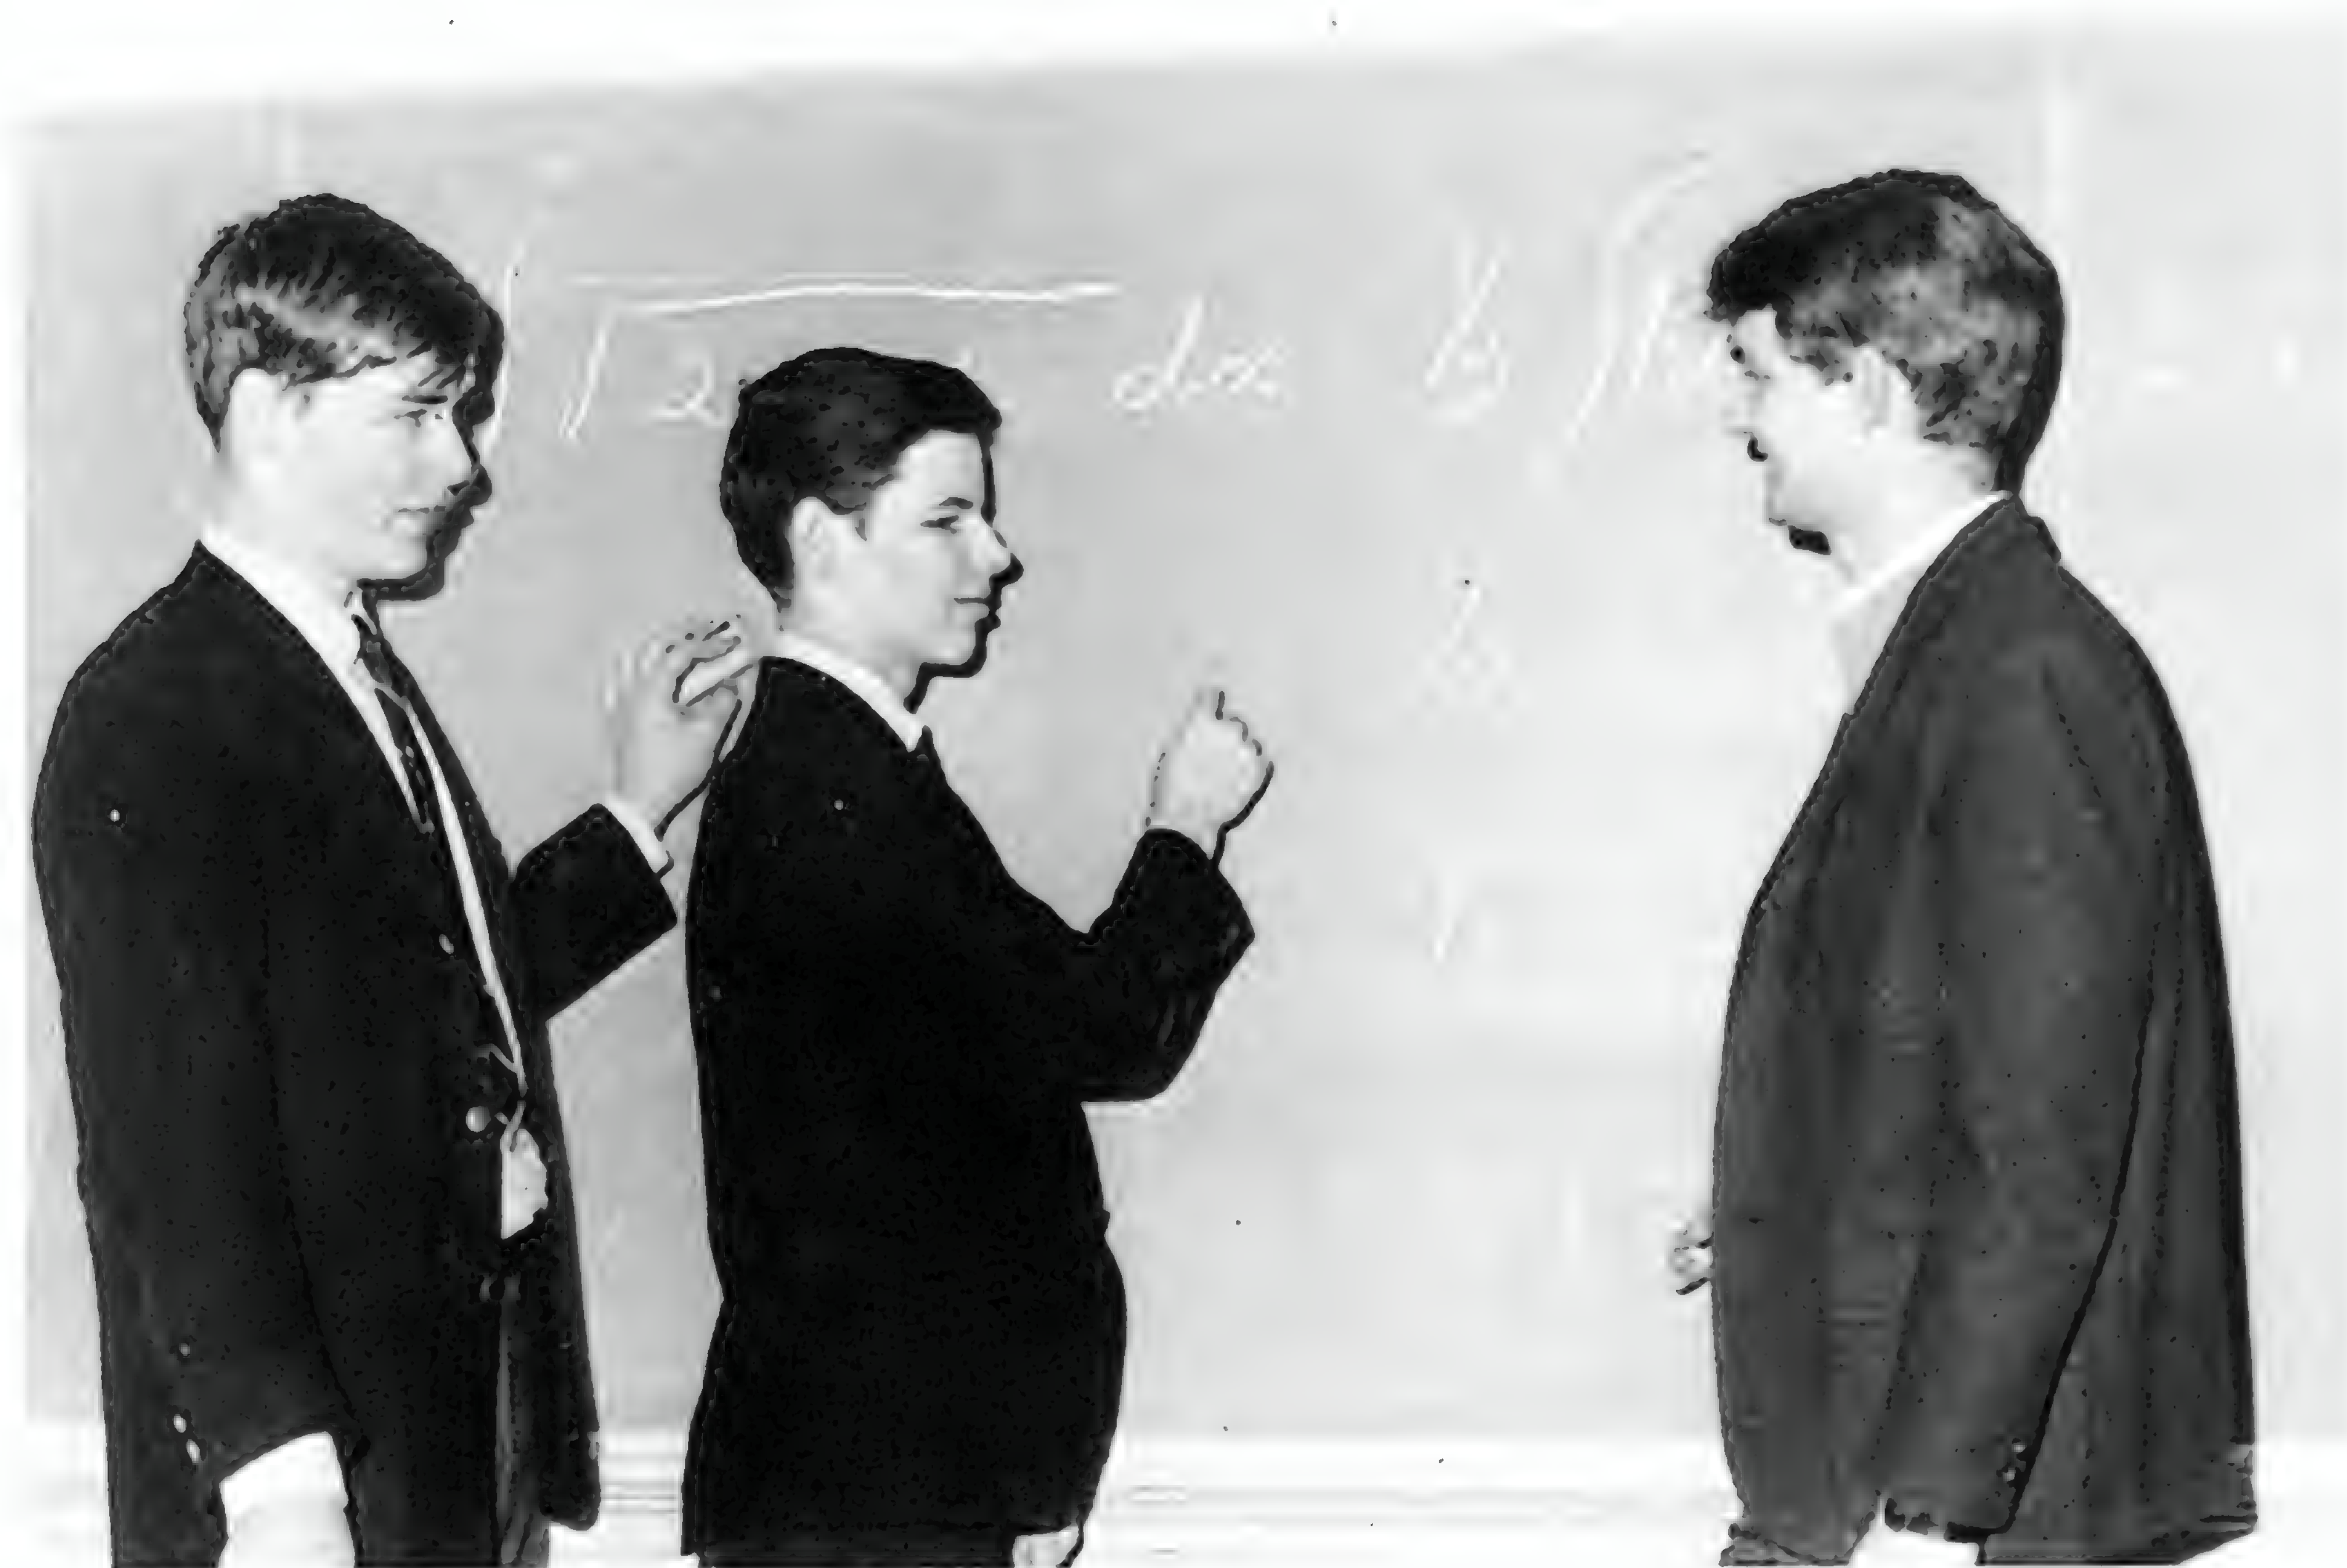

Stopping to chat before homeroom are Sherry Hermann, Kevin Corbett, and John Tucci.

Karen Coy, Pam Pepper, Paula LaConte, and Adele Boison look over some new books in the library during a free period.

Dave Lamont, Norman Daoust, and Jerry Wichlac work out a difficult problem in math.

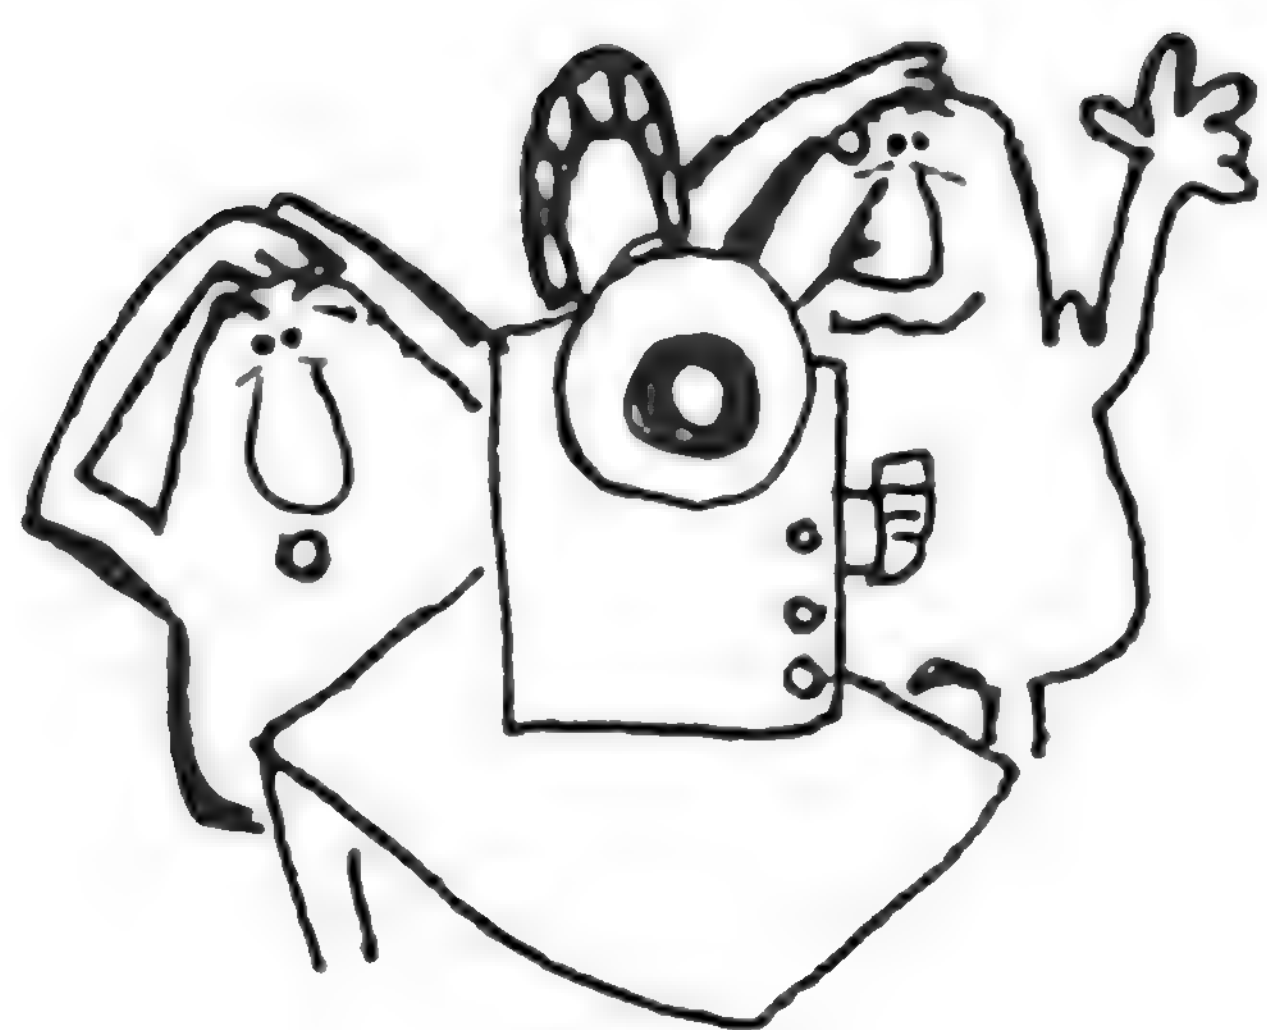

Preparing for orchestra rehearsal are Susan Coles, Gregg Eason, Jane Salata, and Mary Jo Olsen.

Mary Blagdon, Sue Termohlen, Mary Beth Phair, and Bill Levy look over the next issue of the Student's Pen.

Glen Calkins, Joe Lyons, and Julie Dubro stop to discuss the day's happenings before heading for home. Mark Whistler, also a commendation winner, was absent.

Mary Blagdon has received a certificate of merit for the score she achieved on an exam sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English. She now ranks among the top four hundred English students of the United States and is one of the twelve finalists from Massachusetts. Editor-in-chief of the Student's Pen. Mary plans to major in English in college.

Helen and June Harvey are the joint recipients of a new award given this year on the basis of excellence in business subjects. The fine scholastic records that they have maintained during their three years at the high school have earned them this award.

Awards given

People who work hard deserve recognition, and these members of our senior class have earned this honor. We can be proud to be represented by classmates like these, and we hope that their success continues far into the future.

Greg Sammons was Pittsfield High School's representative at Student Government Day on February 13 at the State House in Boston. As a member of the debating club and editor of the current events section of In General. Greg keeps abreast of current events and changes on the political scene.

in various fields

The Sterling Silversmiths Guild of America award was presented to Virginia Belcher on the basis of her outstanding work and overall improvement in the household arts during her years at Pittsfield High School.

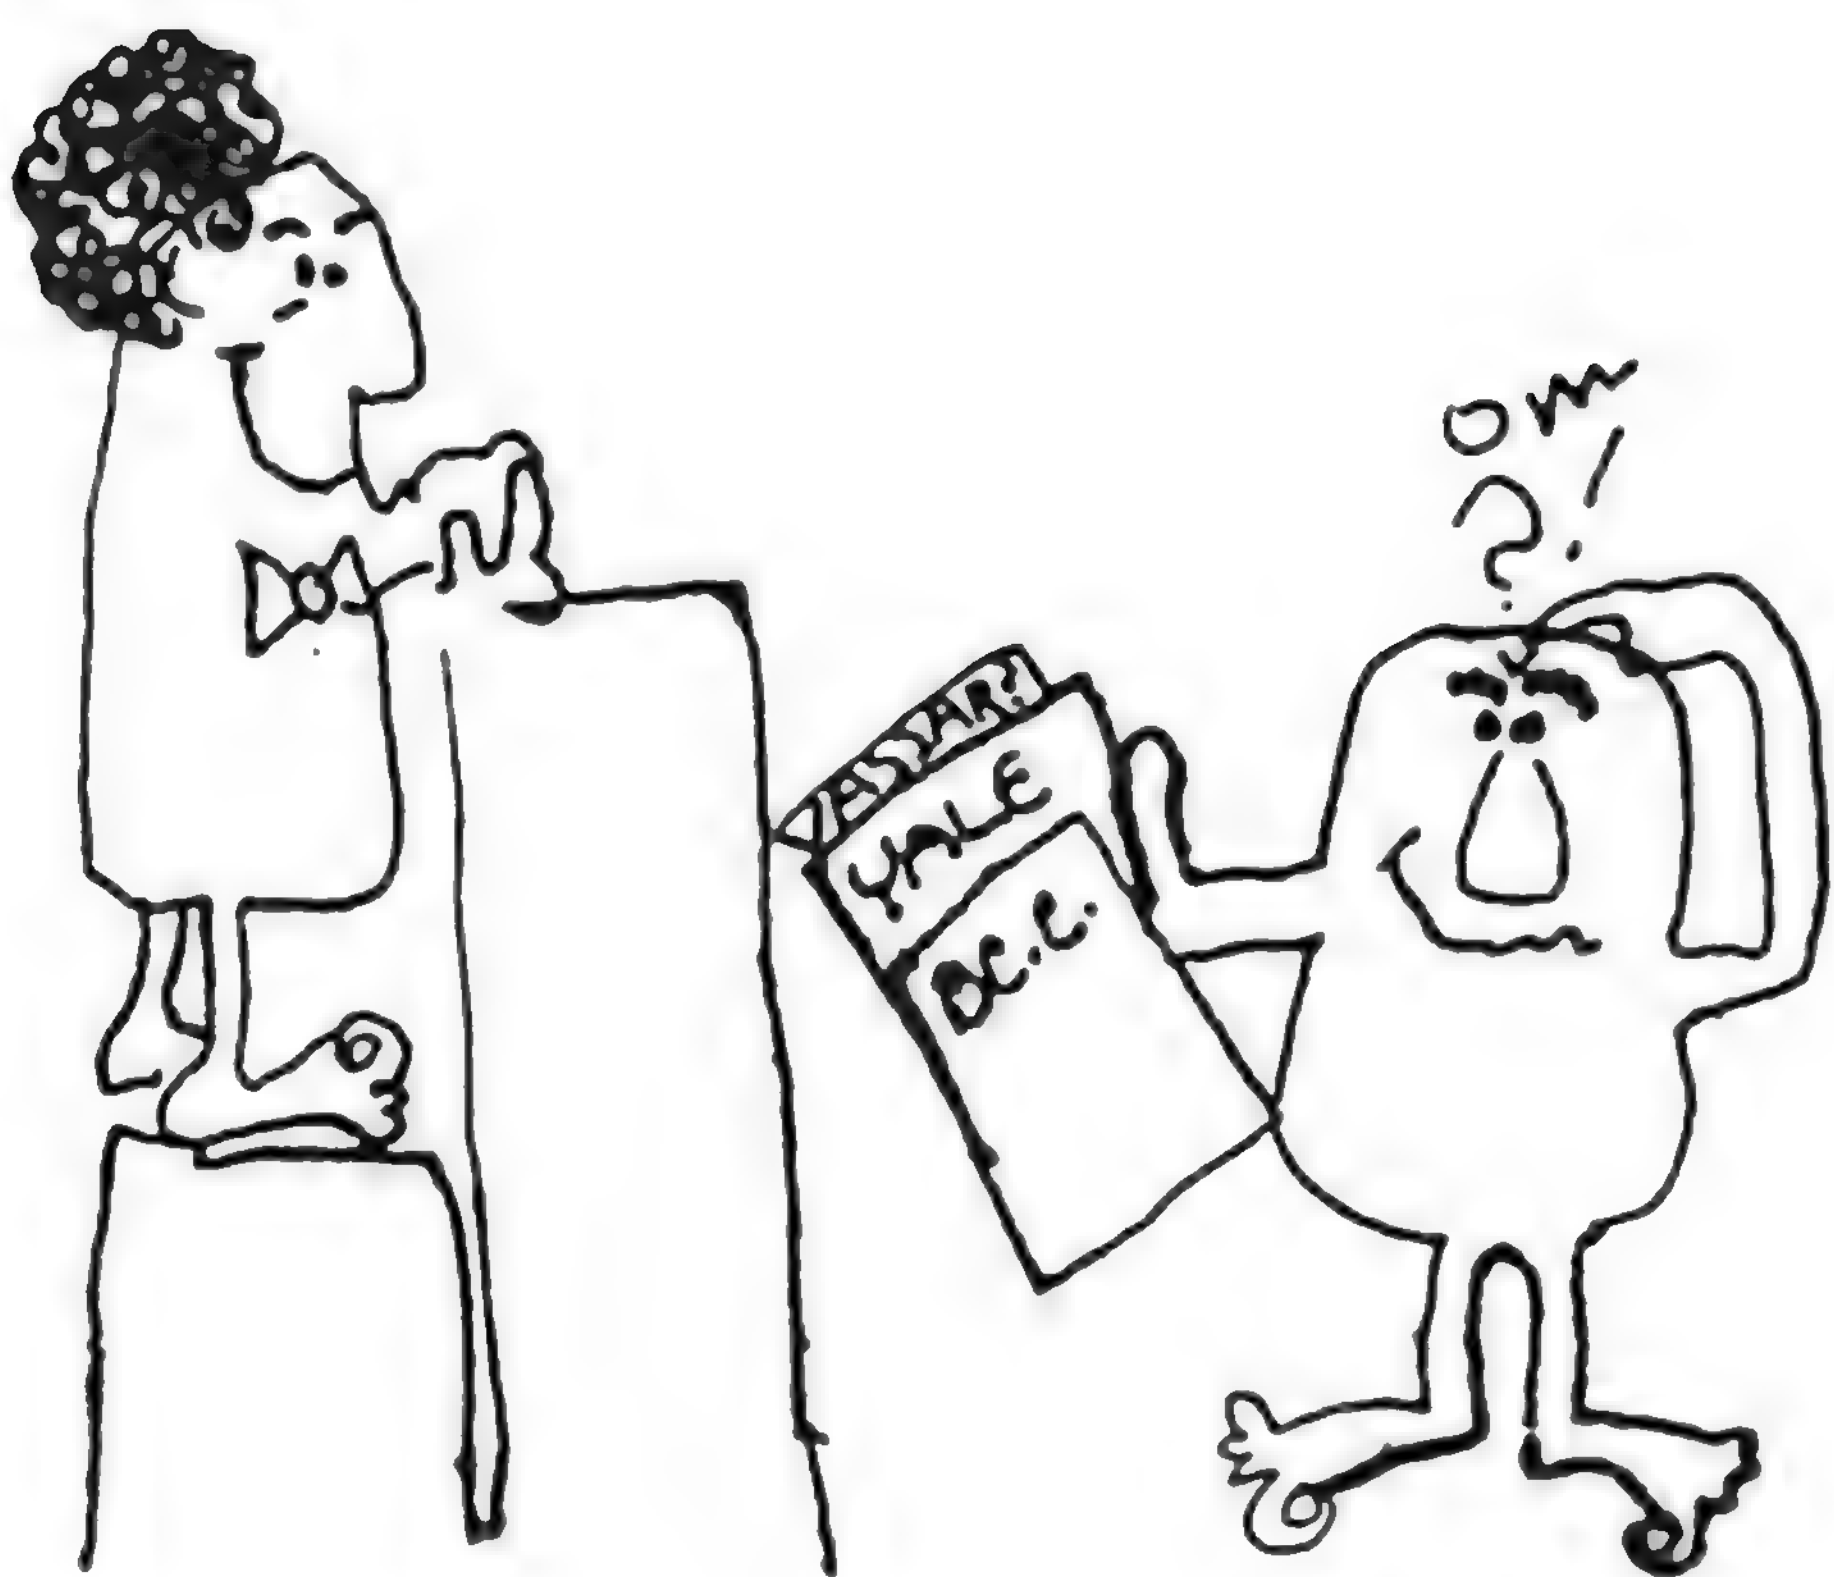

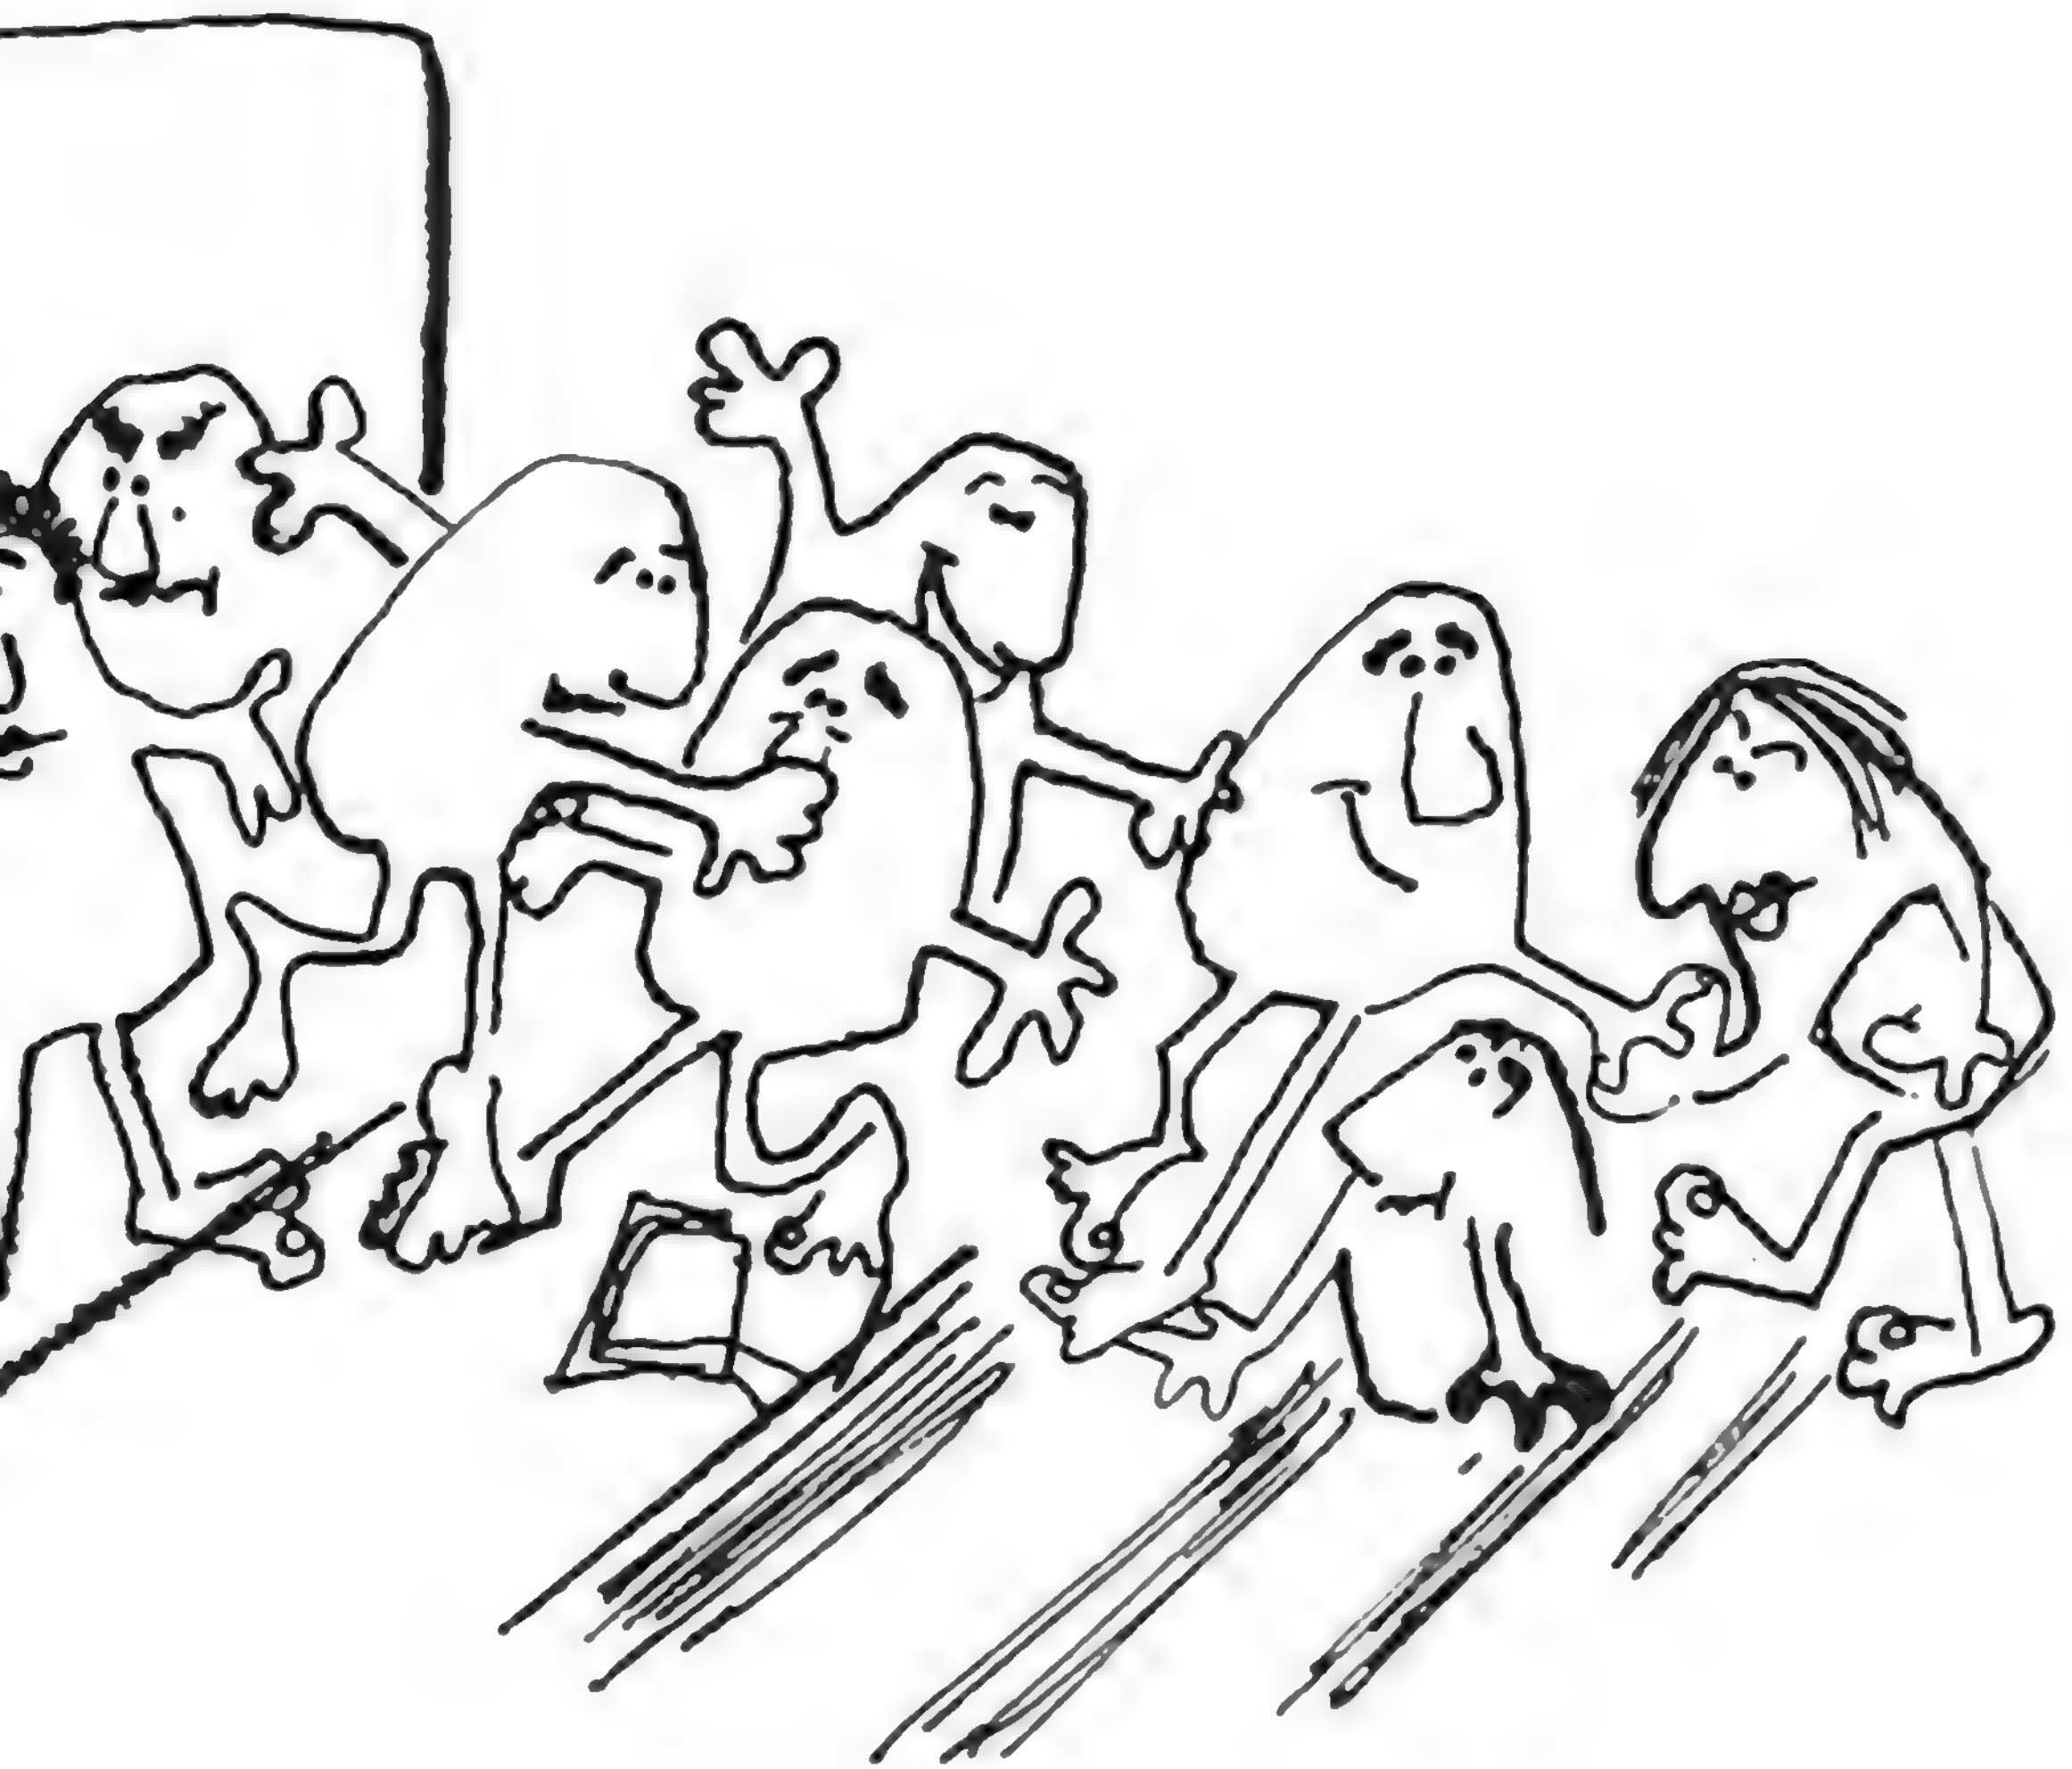

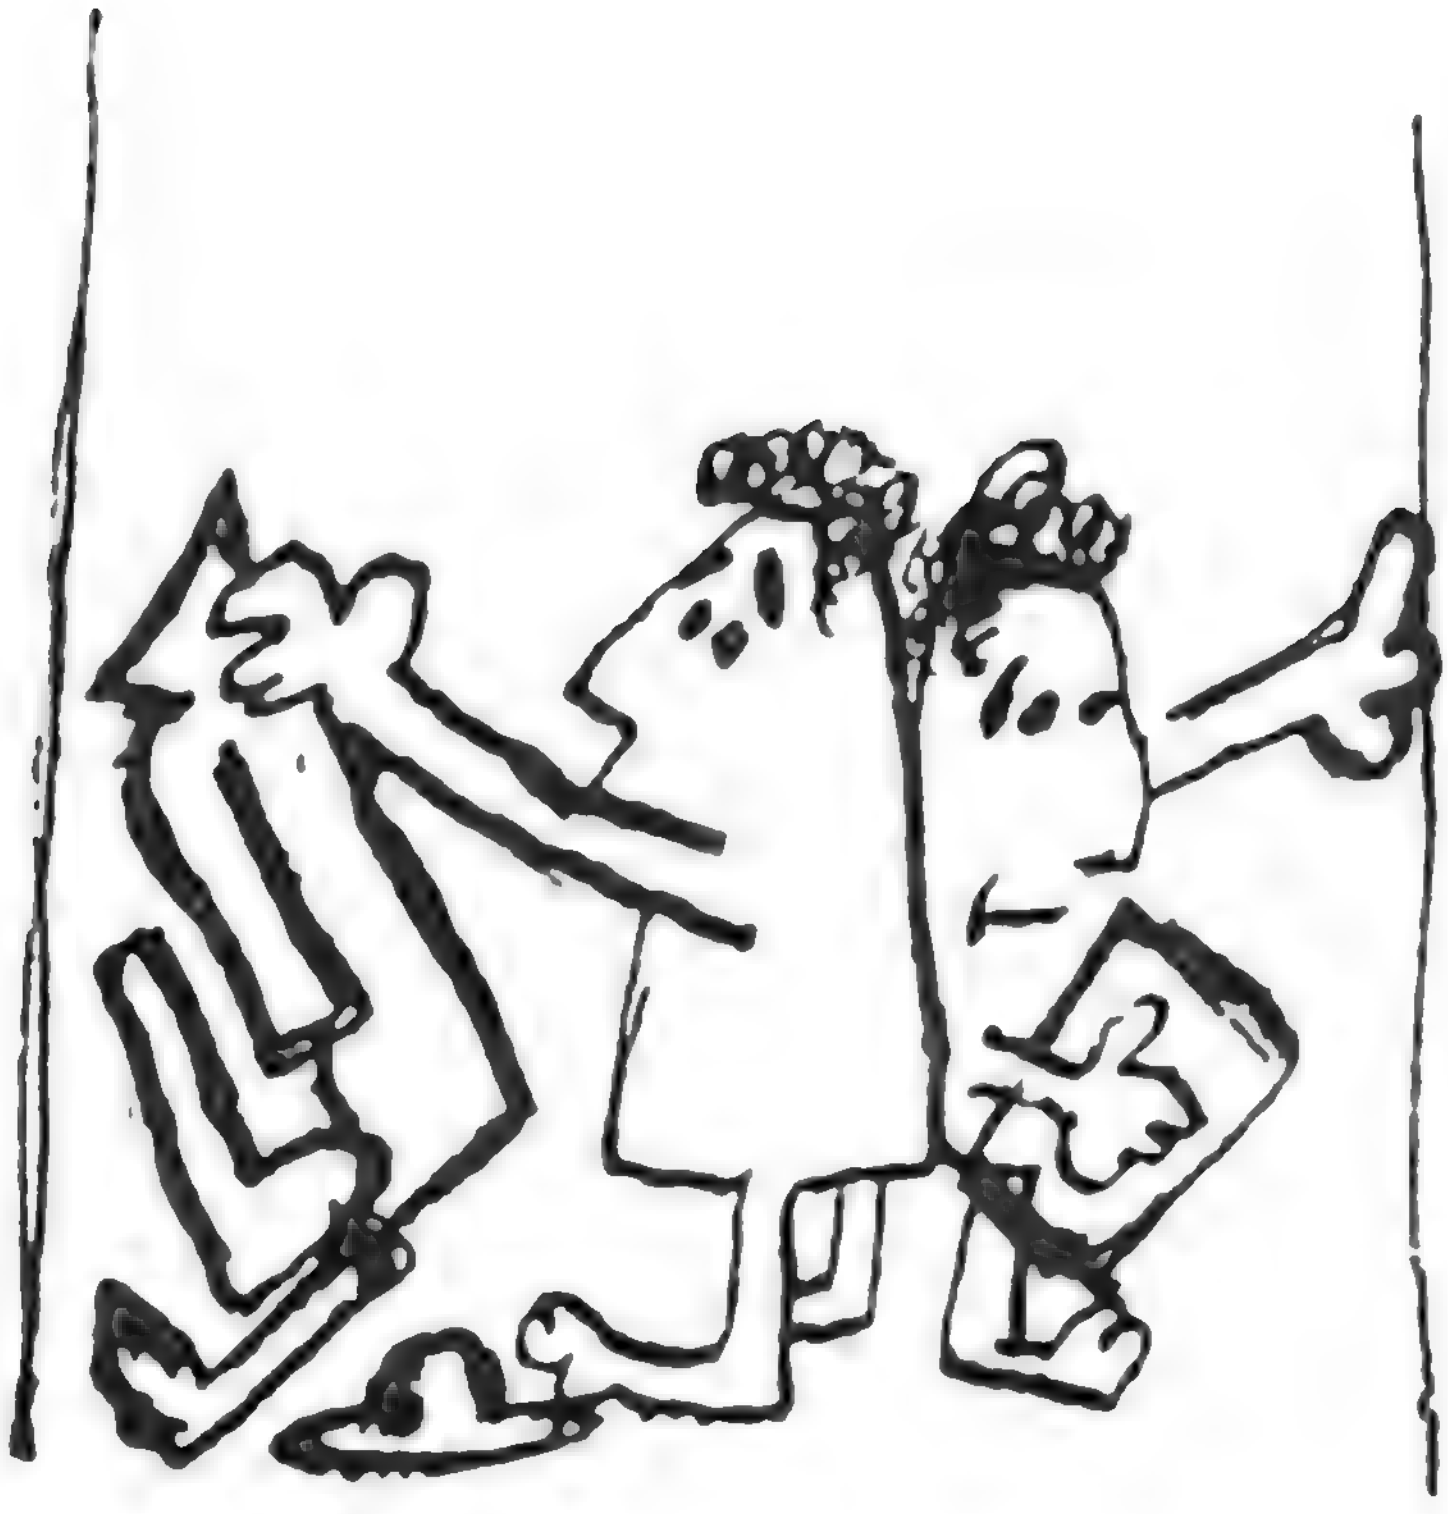

This year's recipient of the annual Jewish War Veterans' award is Sue Termohlen. This brotherhood award, sponsored this year under the theme of "Classmates Today—Neighbors Tomorrow," was given to Sue on the basis of her contributions to the community and to her school.

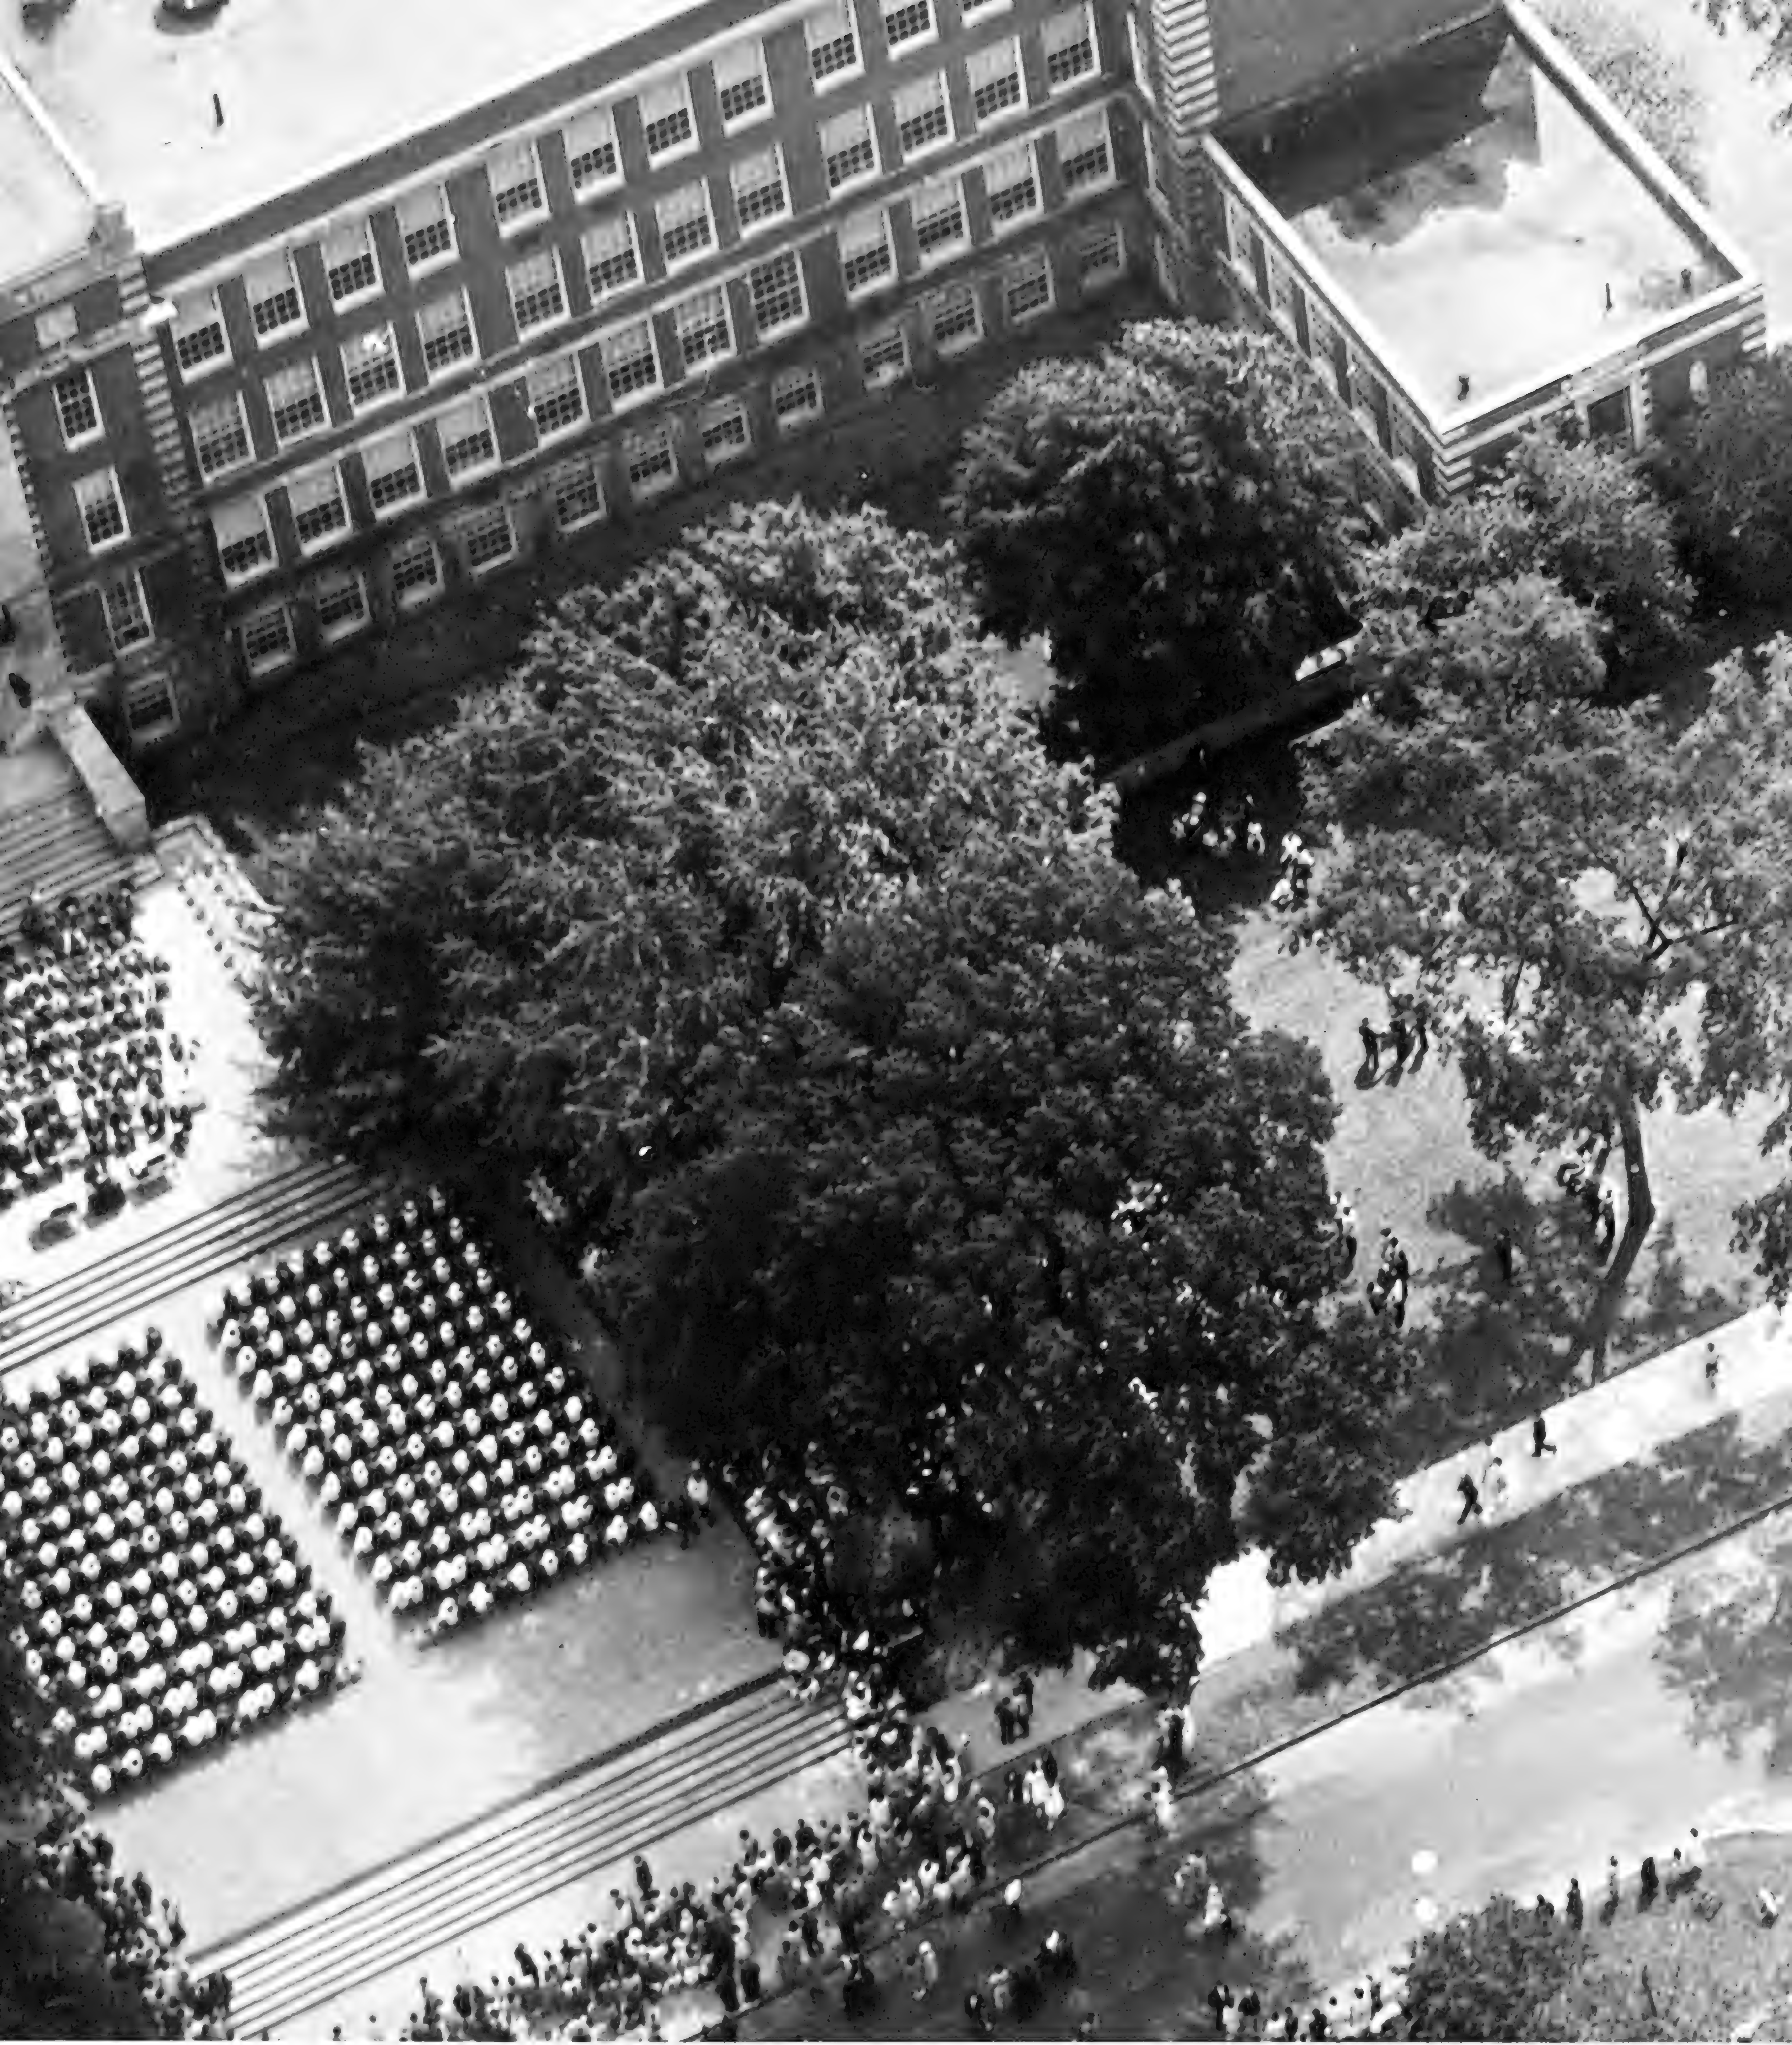

Joan Boivin has been named as winner of the DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution) Award which is given on the basis of citizenship, dependability, leadership, and scholarship. As senior Cadette manager, president of G.A.A., and an A.P. Biology student Joan definitely qualifies for this award.

Reflections on a mad, mad world

Now we look back on the hectic pace of our mad, mad world. Remember the football games, the cafeteria study halls, and the lobby at 12:31? Remember the P.H.S.-St. Joe rally dances in contrast to our proms? But in the midst of all that madness we still found time to study and to occasionally look ahead to the big, big world outside Pittsfield High.

The rings . . .

. . . and the reactions.

North Street at night.

Money is the root of all evil . . . right, Lynn?

Looking ahead . . . or back?

—INSURANCE FOR THE HOMEOWNER—

We extend our Heartiest Congratulations to the class 1968.
May the future be full of achievement.

Since 1835 the Berkshire Mutual has had its part in insuring the future of Berkshire County residents against loss of property. Selling through independent agents, it offers:

- Modern insurance coverages for your home, personal property and business.
- Savings through dividends which are paid on most types of policies.
- Fast claims service, the kind you appreciate when you have a loss, the kind that is possible because BMI's home office is located in Berkshire County.

In Appreciation

The staff of the 1968 Dome would like to express its sincere appreciation to all those who have helped in the publication of this yearbook. We would especially like to thank the following people:

Our advisors—Mrs. Patricia O’Leary and Mr. Gregg A. Voci for their patient guidance, and Miss Laretta Guiltinan for her helpful assistance.

Mr. Eugene Mitchell for his fine photography work.

Mr. Joel Librizzi, Mr. William Mahan, and the Berkshire Eagle for the photographs which they provided for our use.

Miss Gladys Archey and the editors of In General for the many fine pictures they donated to us.

Mr. David Lombard of the O’Toole Publishing Company for his helpful advice and suggestions.

Our advertisers for the financial assistance which made this publication possible.

IN MEMORIAM

Miss Rosemary T. Haylon
July 11, 1909 — May 8, 1968

As a teacher and advisor, Miss Rosemary T. Haylon contributed much to Pittsfield High School. She guided endless numbers of students throughout their high school days, not only as Head of the English Department, but also as an advisor to both the Students Pen and the Dome.

Mr. Eugene Mitchell

May 19, 1911 — March 18, 1968

Mr. Eugene Mitchell, a familiar figure to all at Pittsfield High, was never seen without a camera in hand. Mr. Mitchell freely contributed many hours for our school, capturing forever on film the numerous treasured scenes at P. H. S.

Our Favorite Graduates

Each year, along with the senior class, several members of the faculty find that they, too, are leaving Pittsfield High School for the last time. This year we have five teachers retiring: the Misses Eileen Daly and Elizabeth Synan, and Messrs. Edward McLaughlin, Richard O'Donnell and Francis Bresnehan.

Everyone's favorite seniorita, Miss Eileen Daly, is also leaving. Having taught for more years than she cares to remember, she will be deeply missed by those who knew her and those who were fortunate enough to be in one of her Spanish classes.

Miss Elizabeth Synan

Although, due to illness, Miss Elizabeth Synan was unable to be present for a picture, we are sure that all the students will remember her. A long-standing member of the Mathematics Department, she will leave a void difficult to fill.

The Pittsfield High Vocational School will find the places vacated by these three retiring vocational teachers difficult to fill. All having more than thirty-five years' experience, they are Edward McLaughlin and Richard O'Donnell, machine shop teachers, and Francis Bresnehan, machine-related drawing and blueprint reading.

Color it five straight for

Top physical and mental conditioning was the formula for victory used by Pittsfield's powerhouse track team as it took the Western Mass. track title for the fifth straight year. Under the expert guidance of Coach Benedetti, the fleet-footed Generals ran away with every meet they entered averaging close to 85 points. The record now stands at 33 consecutive dual meets, four straight Springfield Invitation Titles and five Western Mass. Titles. Leading the team were Co-Captains Paul Metallo and Paul Augenstein, along with points from Barry Clark, Dave Genest, Jim Bagdonas, Cabe Mitchell and others. Eleven boys qualified for the State Meet. Paul Metallo won the State crown in the 220, and Barry Clark placed third in the discus.

The season is now over and the Clapp Park track is quiet, but next year the team will return with new talent that will follow in the path of the former championship teams.

Barry Clark is caught in the middle of throwing the discus.

Determination plus is the reason Dave Genest and the track team win.

Co-Captain Paul Augenstein curls over the bar in the pole vault.

Coach Pellerin's Club is Comeback Team

The boys welcome home the winning run.

That never say die attitude and the unbelievable come from behind drive accented the P.H.S. baseball team this year. Under Coach George Pellerin the team was able to bounce back late in the game and come back with a victory. Co-Captains Tom Barry and Joe Kamienski along with Frank Schultz showed great power as they racked opposing pitching and pitchers. Jim Briggs and Dick Russell hurled well for the Generals as they were tied for first going into the last game of the season. Then, in the last game, the team took a heart-breaking 3-2 loss to St. Joseph of Pittsfield to finish the season with a 16-8 record.

O'Donnell, J. Lander. Third Row: J. Elser, D. Gerardi, M. Reynolds, R. Russo, Mgr. M. Mougin, and Mgr. T. Cook.

Golf Team Places Second

Playing in their third year of varsity competition the tennis team under Coach Sylvester finished a fine season. The team showed much confidence and experience in posting a 2 wins and 3 loss record. If not for the powerful Lenox Prep, the Generals would have finished with a winning season.

Outstanding players for the racketmen were Ken Hydinger, Pete Burdett and Mike Kurgan.

Golf Team

Tennis Team Wins New Coach

Tennis Team

For the first time in fifteen years the P. H. S. Golf Team did not win the Northern Berkshire League title. The reason may be a vast improvement in the competition throughout the county. Coach Moxon's "duffers" finished a fine season with a respectable 8 wins and 4 losses, just one match behind Wahconah. Outstanding players for the team were Co-Captain Don Dastoli, George Knutson and constant medalist Bill Ryan.

Class Day 1968 was a mixture of the serious and silly as the senior class ended its days at Pittsfield High School.

Following the usual clowning around and the reading of the Class Will, the seniors marched outside to plant the class tree. Leading the procession, which was flanked by the members of the class of 1969, were officers Dave Marchetto, Kathy Curd, Donna Ropelewski and Richard Kennedy.

Frank Schultz, President of the Student Council, read the tree oration, which was followed by the singing of the Alma Mater.

For the first time since Pittsfield High School opened in 1931, graduation exercises were not held at the school. Instead, for reasons of bad weather and practicality, commencement was held at the Boys' Club this year.

Despite the fact that all plans were made and practice held specifically for graduation on the mall, the switch to the Boys' Club caused no major problems and the ceremonies proceeded smoothly. Parents and friends filled the bleachers in the gym to capacity.

Preceding the presentation of diplomas by Mayor Donald G. Butler, special awards were presented by Principal Lawrence J. Murphy as Superintendent of Schools James P. Reynolds read the names of the seniors receiving the various awards.
